HIS EMINENCE JAMES FRANCIS CARDINAL McINTYRE, D.D., LL.D.
ARCHBISHOP OF LOS ANGELES

AUXILIARY BISHOP AND CHANCELLOR
MOST REVEREND ALDEN J. BELL, D.D.

Bishop Bell was ordained May 14, 1932; appointed Titular Bishop of Rhodopolis and Auxiliary of Los Angeles, April 18, 1956; consecrated June 4, 1956; named Chancellor June 4, 1956.

AUXILIARY BISHOP AND VICAR GENERAL
MOST REVEREND TIMOTHY MANNING, D.D., J.C.D.

Bishop Manning was ordained June 16, 1934; appointed Titular Bishop of Lesvi and Auxiliary of Los Angeles, August 3, 1946; consecrated October 15, 1956; named Vicar General, November 29, 1955.

Father C. Cranham and Father Delaney, Principal and Vice-principal, confer on plans for school and classes.

My Dear Students:

"To restore all things in Christ" is the motto of our saintly patron. This should be the goal of every Catholic, and especially you who have had the privilege of attending Pius X High School. In a world that is sick with turmoil, struggling as never before with the powers of darkness, this motto might well be your mission regardless of the paths your future lives may take.

A well rounded education is possible and available to almost everyone in this wonderful country of ours. But an education that gives full scope to the spiritual and moral side of man, one that teaches eternal values and the real purpose of life is to be found only in a Catholic school. Your tremendous good fortune in receiving such an education is something that you will realize fully only with the passing years.

Under the inspired leadership of His Eminence, Cardinal McIntyre, a great many people have sacrificed to give you a school second to none. Your parents you can never repay. And you should be ever grateful to the dedicated people who have given their time and talent that you might receive the best.

You are charged with the responsibility of making the richness of intellectual growth and sound spirituality you have received reflect itself in your lives so as to influence others in bringing to actuality our wonderful motto "to restore all things in Christ."

Faculty

Unpracticed minds

Fingering

Strange instruments of learning

And untried harmonies

Of knowledge—

Dissonance,

Without guiding hands,
words

And firm admonitions

To make the unknown,
known,

The unsure, sure,

The dull, inspired,

By long hours

Of hard association.

Dexterous hands

Shaping, paring

The malleable sounds

Of student life

Into a soaring whole.

To the faculty,

Creators, conductors

Of the student symphony

We, the players

Dedicate this book—

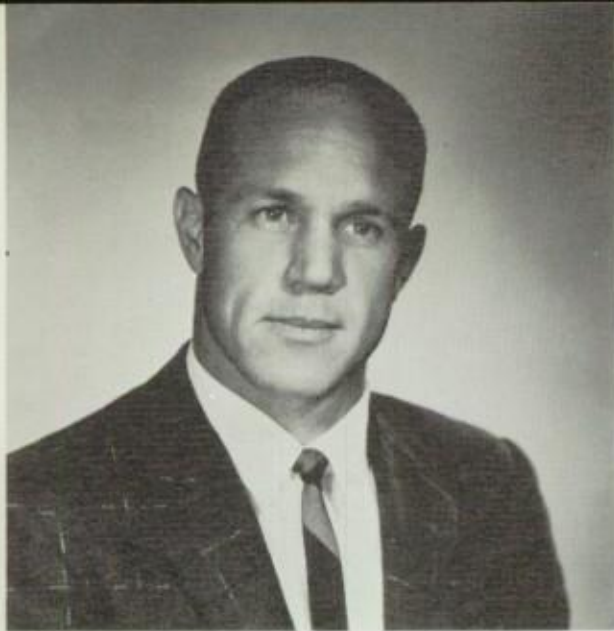

Merely score of that

Which their direction

Transforms to living music.

—J. Grantham '62

Mr. Herb Adams, sports instructor, also instructs in the elements of American History.

Juniors take a History test under the watchful eye of Mr. A. Adams.

Number, Gender, Case—ever present in the study of Latin. Father Alvarez sees his students advance in the study of the language.

Father John Alvarez instructor of Latin I, II and Religion. He is moderator of Home-room 204, as well.

Sister Mary Aline, C.S.J.O., moderator of Junior Girls' Homeroom 201 and she teaches Typing I, II.

Jackie Marchand seems perplexed by the intricacies of College typing, but it is really the photographer she is afraid of!

There must be something rather humorous in Margaret Weber's explanation of the Trigonometric identity as reflected in the faces of Sister Anne Marie and Pat Konoske.

Sister Anne Marie, C.S.C., moderator of Senior Homeroom 225, instructs students in the puzzles of simultaneous equations and cosines through her Algebra I, II, and Trigonometry classes.

Sophomore Girls' Homeroom 221 has as its moderator Sister Mary Anthony, O.S.F., who teaches English II, III, and Spanish I, II.

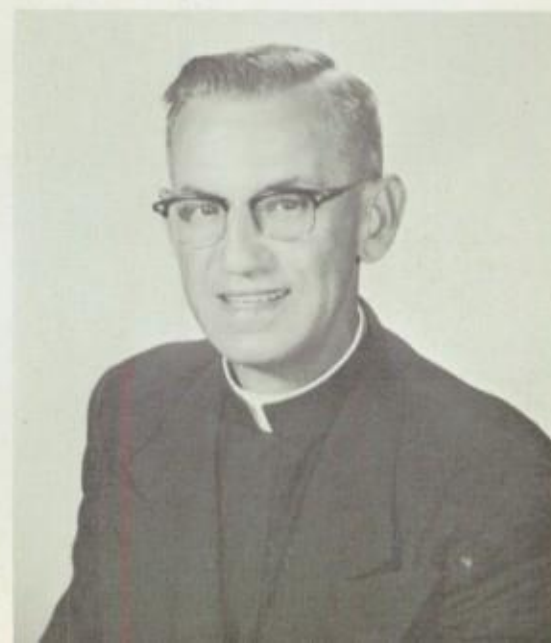

Sister Anthony's English II students, June Nebel and Mary Range, explain the fundamentals of good writing to the rest of the class.

T. Gardia, M. Caudillo, I. Ruiz, E. Kramer, and C. Brandon (at piano) are members of Father Aniceto's piano class.

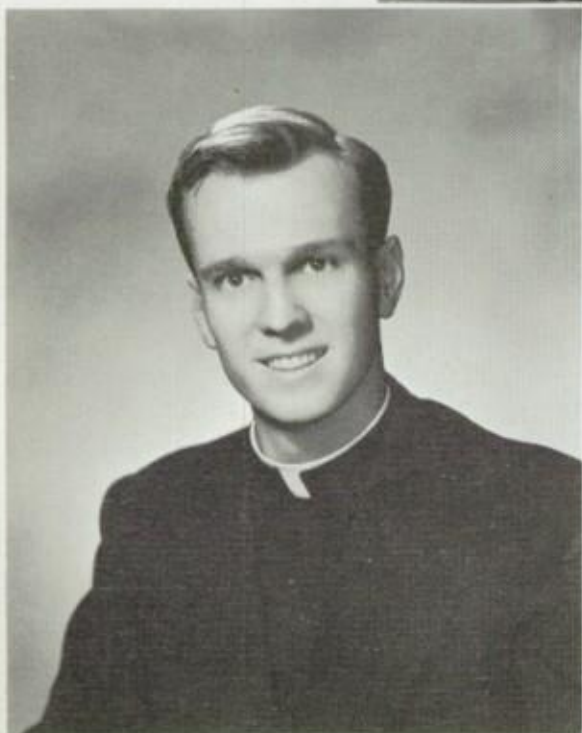

A diversity of subjects, Piano, General Language I and Religion III, is being taught by Father Aniceto Amillano, O.R.S.A.

Spanish

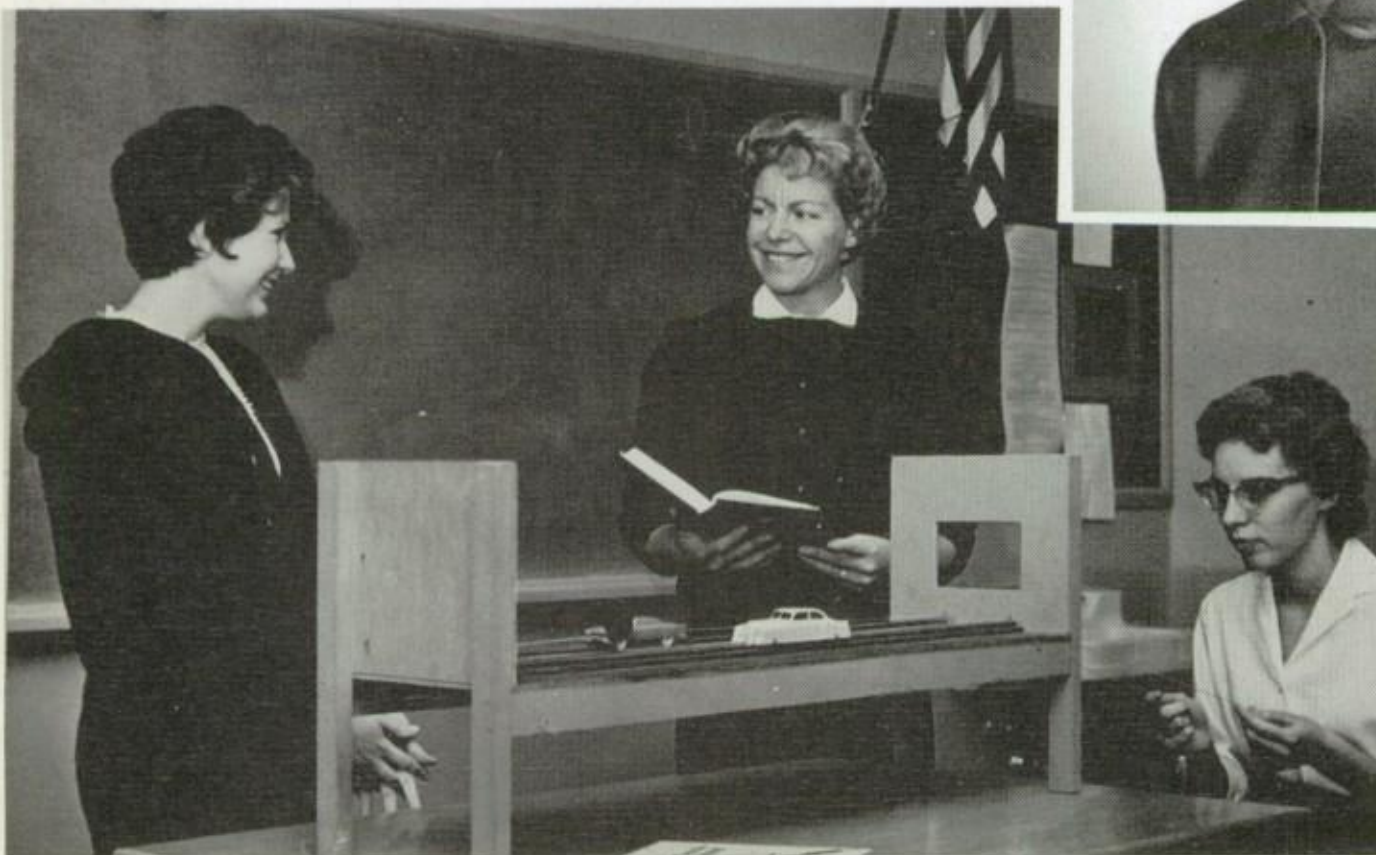

Father Boudreau's Spanish I students listen as he explains the differences between Spanish and English pronunciation and enunciation.

Besides being the moderator of Sophomore Boys' homeroom 220, Father Thomas Boudreau teaches Religion II, III, and Spanish I.

There are many strings attached to good driving, as E. Kramer demonstrates to D. Glenn and Mrs. Caldero.

A member of St. Emydius Parish, Mrs. Eva Caldero has spent her fourth year at Pius X teaching Girls' Physical Education and Drivers' Education.

Driver Education

World Literature

Mr. Alan Campo, moderator of Freshman Boys' Homeroom 110, teaches English I and IV, and World Literature.

Science

The intricacies of God's creations are examined in Sister Catherine Grace's Biology, and Physiology classes. She is moderator of Freshman Girls' Homeroom 129.

Terry Miller and Jo Ann Marino enjoy watching the baby rats, but Elizabeth Cherie Cheshier seems dubious about taking one in her hand from Sister Catherine Grace, I.H.M.!

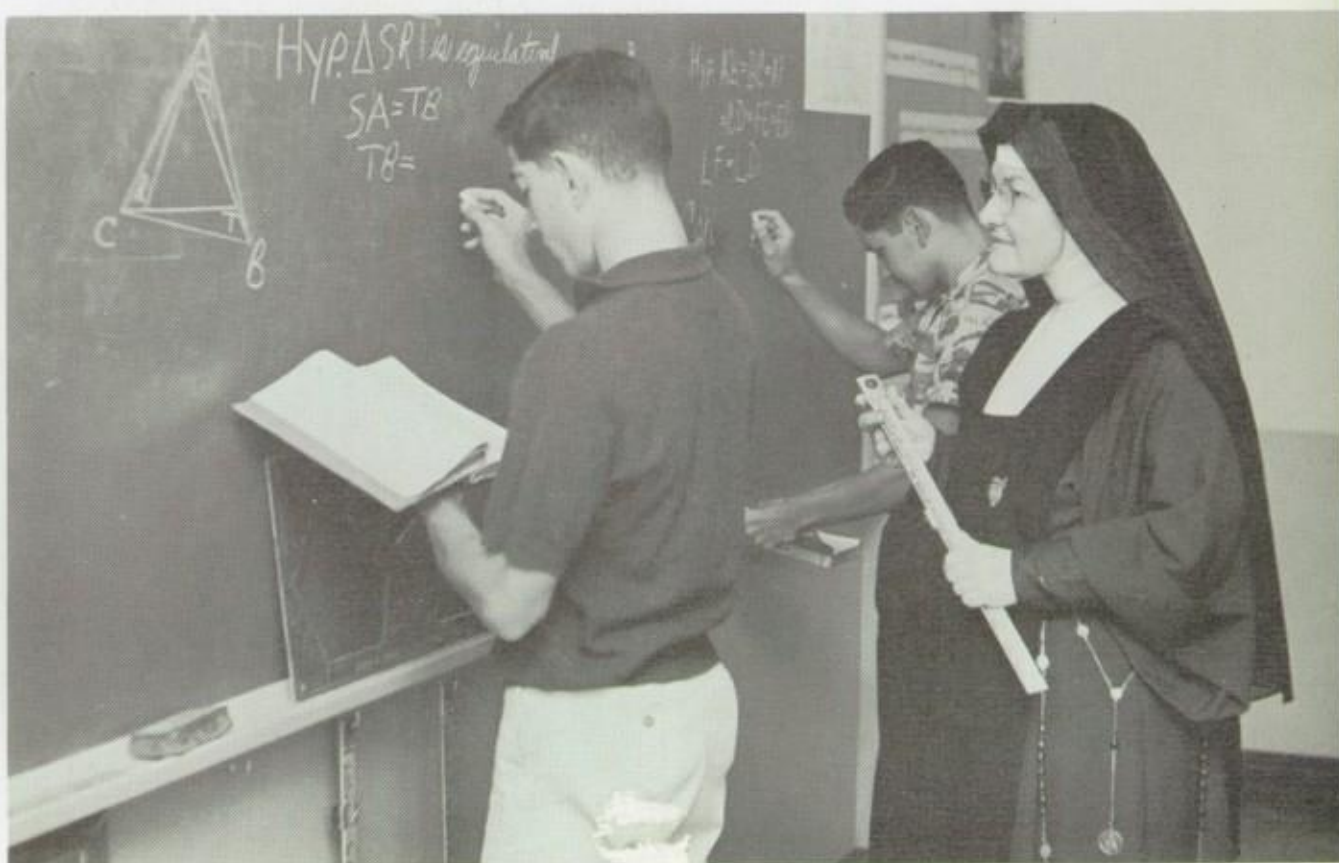

Along with instructing seniors in politics in Civics classes, Mrs. Bernice Caudillo is moderator of the International Relations Club.

Sister Mary Celestine, I.H.M., moderator of Freshman Girls' Homeroom 117, imparts to Sophomores the knowledge of congruent triangles in her Geometry classes.

John Vivillacqua and Max Gallegos demonstrate equilateral sides for Sister M. Celestine.

Sister M. Christina oversees the correct placement of Roman gladiators and arena furniture by Donna Kitpatrick, Sharon Nolette, Gail Shulz and Alice Schroeder.

Sister M. Christina, C.S.-J.O., is moderator of Junior Girls' Homeroom 205, and teaches Latin II and III.

Frater Daniel Collins, S.V.D., is moderator of Sophomore Boys' Homeroom 206 and he teaches History II and III.

Frater Collins is out of the picture, but his class apparently works along just as well as not . . . but we don't imagine he is too far away.

Father Patrick Cotter teaches Freshmen the correlation between religion and history in his Religion I and History I classes.

History

Father Cotter checks Steve Fullerton's test rather carefully for the time that it takes to pose for a picture for our book.

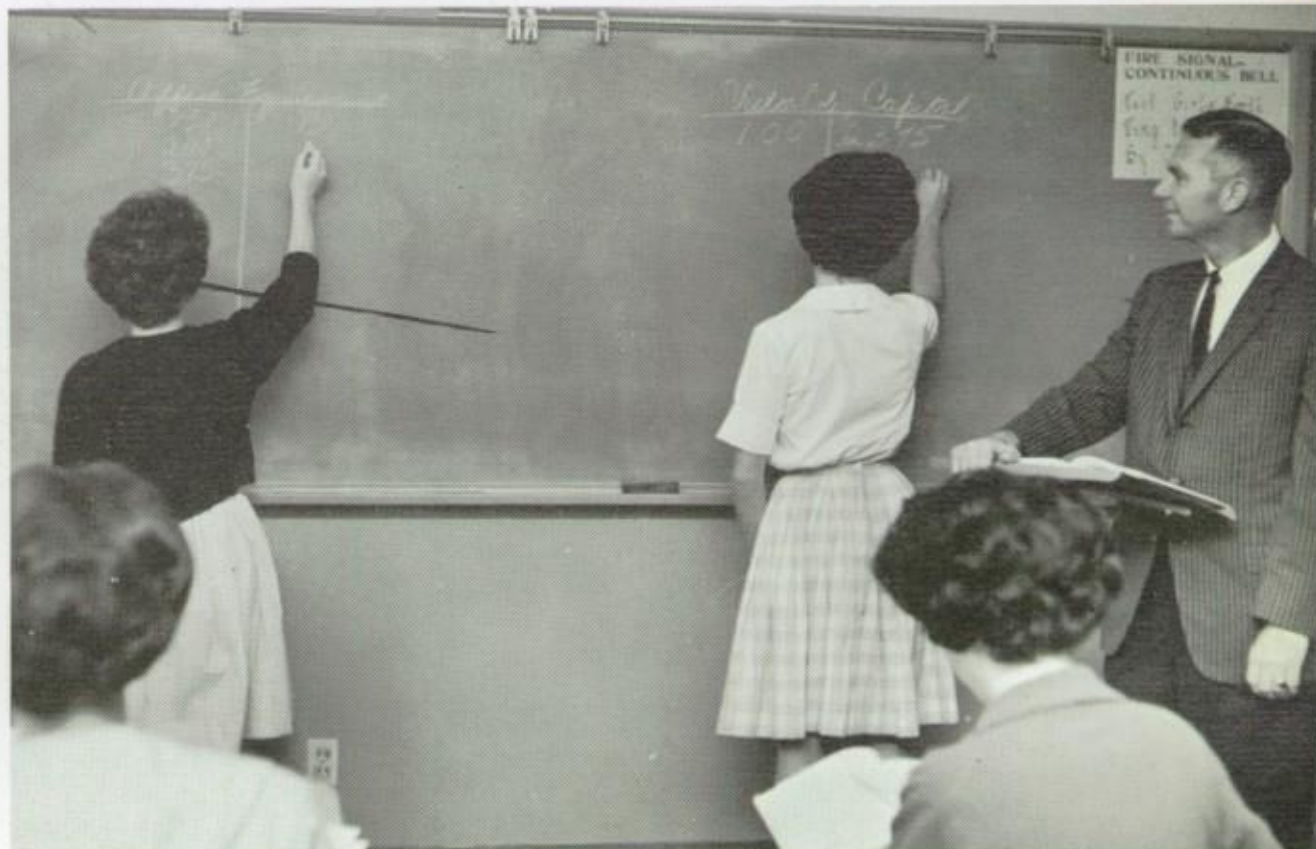

Joe Bonello, Tom Benofy, David Bienlein and Jack Walters are a bit skeptical of the "Ways of Perfection" Father Croal points out for their study.

Father Thomas Croal teaches Religion I, IV and Latin I. He is moderator of Senior Boys' Homeroom 202.

Bookkeeping and Algebra, beside coaching our football team, keeps Mr. Farley Day at work and play.

In Bookkeeping class it takes two to get the figuring done. Mary Peterson and Betty Radley put to work some principles learned in Mr. Day's class.

Under Father Delaney's careful eye, Jan Lazenby, Carla May and Phil Partain are all attentive as John Newman performs the Physics experiment planned for this demonstration.

The positions of Vice Principal and teacher of Algebra II, Trigonometry and Physics are the duties carried out daily by Father Matthew S. Delaney.

History

Mr. Joseph Donohue's History I classes learn the rudiments of ancient history. He is also the moderator of Freshman Boys' Homeroom 212.

Hearing oneself on tape is a good way to learn how not to give an oral report! Mr. Donohue uses the "mike" to demonstrate.

Sister Mary Duane, C.S.C., Tom Hynes, Lupe Sanchez, Geneva Ruiz, Roger Garcia, Sally Castillo, and Linda Sigler seem to enjoy Agnes Storey's reading of a Spanish menu in the "Restaurants Del Paso."

Sr. Mary Duane, C.S.C., Moderator of Senior Girls' Homeroom 131, imparts a knowledge of Spanish culture, history, and achievements in Spanish II, III, and IV classes.

Spanish

Sister Mary Erentrude, O.S.F., moderator of Sophomore Girls' Homeroom 217, teaches General Chemistry, and German 1, II and III. . . .

German students, Dave Rausch, Nick Appledorn, and Rene Gascou pose for the picture, but the work for the day was a translation for Sister M. Erentrude, their teacher.

Mrs. Erlinda Florentin, teacher of Physiology, assists Pat Wilhelm and Anita Raisola in their quest for knowledge concerning all living things.

Born and educated in the Philippines, Mrs. Erlinda Florentine has spent her first year at Pius X teaching Experimental Geometry, Biology and Physiology.

Mr. Ferrer teaches Remedial Reading and Biology, and moderates the "soft drink hustlers" of the football games.

Mr. Fernando Ferrer explains the fundamentals of the SRA Reading Kit to students of his Remedial Reading class.

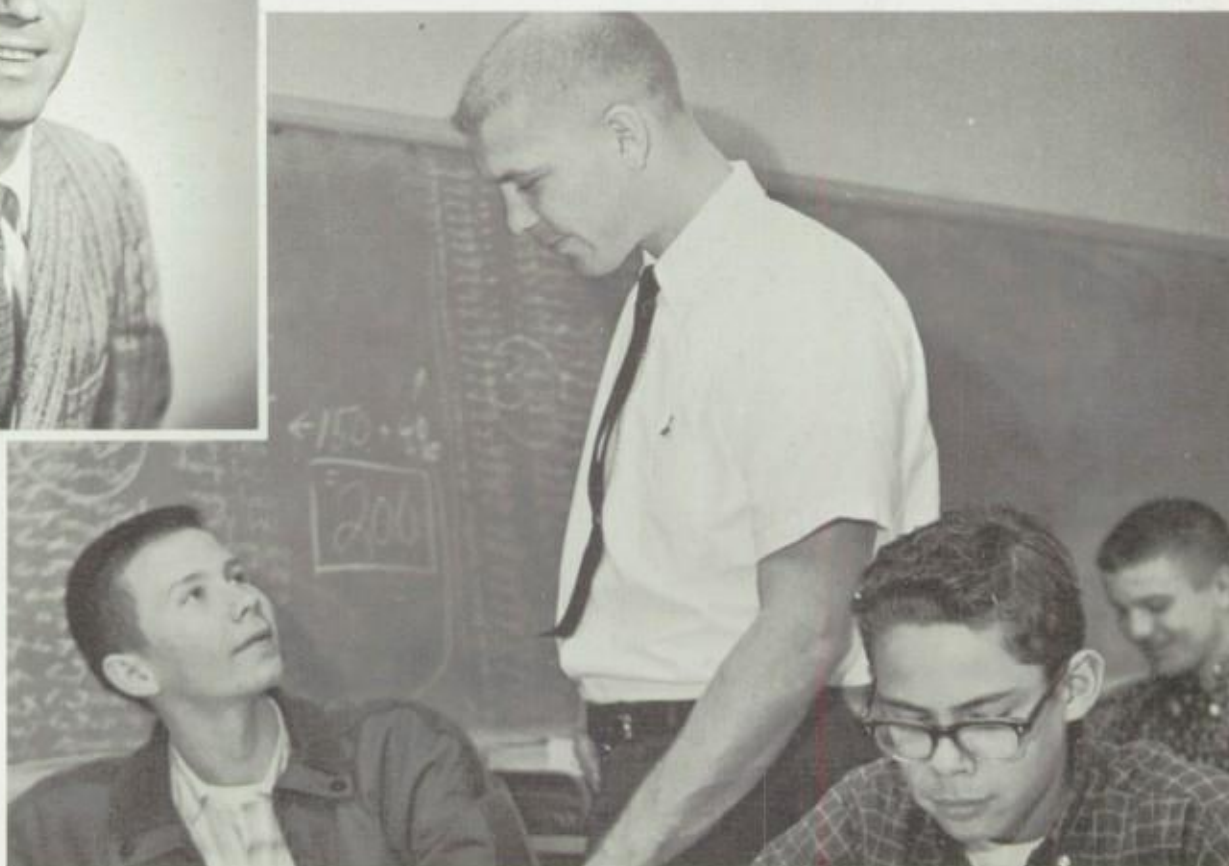

Mechanical Drawing

James Martin looks to Mr. Folsom for the right angle on a turn of a screw! Dick Houck and Bill Sweeney have managed theirs.

Besides teaching Boys' Physical Education, Mr. Roger L. Folsom is moderator of Sophomore Boys' Homeroom 111, and also teaches Mechanical Drawing.

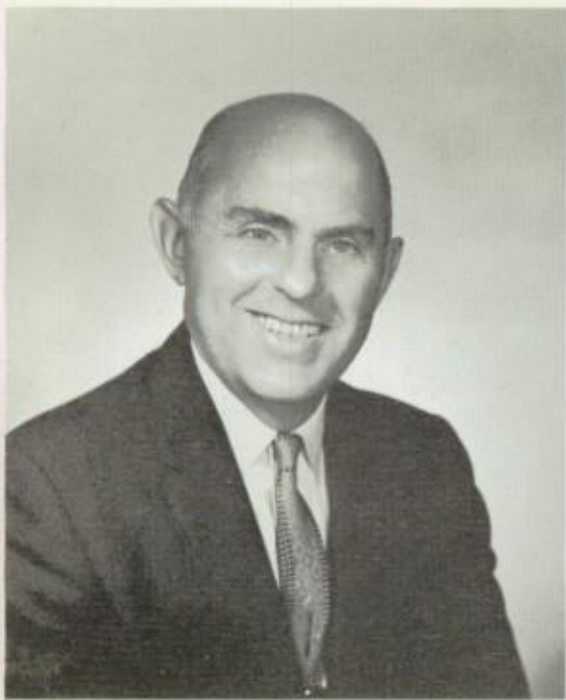

Religion

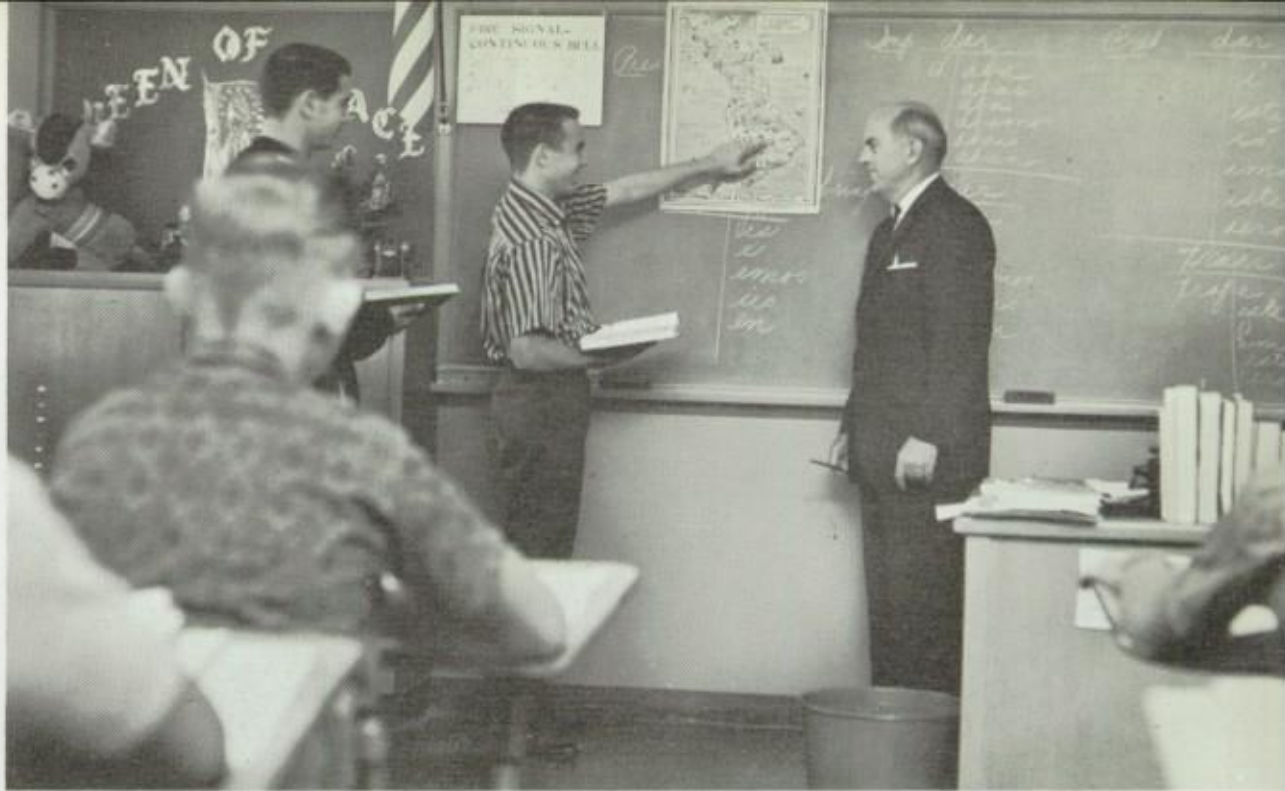

Father Joseph A. Francis, S.V.D., is moderator of Senior Boys' homeroom 106 and he teaches Religion 1, II, and IV.

Father Francis explains to his Sophomore religion class the beauties of Christ's life, death, and resurrection and its application to a happy life and a happier Eternity.

Mr. Ray Heideman, Pius X Athletic Director, teaches History II.

Ron Babel and Paul Shaheen point out the economic resources of South America to Mr. Heideman and the class of History II.

M. Wade, J. Mangold, M. Finnerty, and J. Valenzuela wait for the "Read, begin!" signal from Sr. Helen Louise as they use the Practical English reading test.

English I and II is being taught under the able hands of Sr. Helen Louise, who is also the home-room teacher of Junior Girls, 207.

Sister Gertrude Mary, D.M.J., of Sophomore Girls' Homeroom 215, teaches History I, English IV and Advanced Composition.

Sewing

Sister M. Jeannette, C.S.J.O., Dean of Girls and Tiara Moderator, teaches English II and Sewing I and II.

C. Zolla, K. Dromgoole, R. Raisola, C. Roque, P. Caillier and J. Geraths are sewing along with Sister Jeannette and Mrs. Pappe.

Algebra

Mary Rauterkus receives a briefing on an Algebra addition problem. Nancy Rosato and Barbara Prusso look on.

The complexity of $h+9$ is aptly explained by Sister Jean Francis, C.S.C., moderator of Senior Girls' Homeroom 109, in her Algebra I and II classes.

Sister John Gabriel, moderator of Junior girls' homeroom 107, attempts to impart her specialty through Art I, II, and III classes.

Julie Bennett and Mary Stack work on puppet-making with paper mache in the background, as Sr. John Gabriel overlooks K. Bennett, P. Hendrickson, S. Lemmons, S. Castillo, and J. Klempin's lettering. R. Reinhold and G. Hadryck work on glass etchings in the foreground.

One drop nitro—one drop glycerin. Sr. John Mary carefully watches her Chemistry students, Tom Hynes, Paul Bell, Mary Kay Suto, and Mary Anne Bope as they prepare their experiment.

Sister John Mary, I.H.M., moderates Freshman Girls' Homeroom 127, and erases the puzzle in students' mind about molecules and parallelograms through her Advanced Chemistry and Geometry classes.

Teaching Religion I and II, and Glee, and moderating Freshman Boys' Homeroom 200 take the fulltime attention of Father James Keefe.

Father James Keefe leads his Glee group in a rehearsal for some of the Christmas entertainment.

Religion

Custodian of the bookstore, Father George Kramer also moderates Freshman Boys' Homeroom 108, teaches Religion I, III, and IV.

Father Kramer and his Religion I class listens as Robert Bezuhley explains the four cycles of the Christ life; Advent, Christmastide, Lent, and Pentecost.

Physical Education

Robin hooding is not dead! Mrs. Lefebvre assists Susan Goulet as Maureen Lindsey, Carolyn Stoltz, Romona Gribben, Paula Simons, Jone Sones, Joanne Gessick, and Judy Copper-smith prepare to hit the target.

Mrs. Virginia Lefebvre teaches Physical Education, First Aid and Home Nursing to Senior girls.

Library

As custodian of the library, Sister Mary Marcellina, C.S.C., sees to it that the shelves are well stocked with books for students' research and relaxation.

Sister Marcellina assists students in the selection of appropriate books for their leisure and study hours. John Campbell seems to have mastered the art of reading two books at the same time.

Sophomore girls try out a test for Father McElroy in one of the Religion II classes.

Religion

Father James E. McElroy moderates Sophomore Boys' Homeroom 211 and teaches Religion II and IV.

Sister Marie Patrice, C.S.C., of Senior Girls' Homeroom 225, teaches French I, IV and English IV.

Ronald Roque points out Paris, France, for Sister Marie Patrice and Mary K. Fournier. Methinks he's missed it, a bit!

Sister Martha Magdalen, I.S.C., teaches English I, II, III and IV.

Sister Martha Magdalen, P. Konoske, and T. Brenier watch as M. Bryant, M. Petersen, and S. Lemmens take turns pointing out the chief scenes in Macbeth.

Drama

Mr. Clayton F. Meyer, moderator of Junior Boys' Homeroom 114, teaches English III, Journalism and Drama. He is also advisor for the school paper, The Sword and Shield.

"But I didn't hit her, honest!" Randy Martin pleads innocent to Mr. Meyer, director of the Drama Club, as Sally Pettibone sobs.

Attention in Father Moreno's Religion I class is focused on the Mystery of the Blessed Trinity.

Father Alfonzo Moreno, O.R.S.A., teaches a variety of subjects; Experimental Algebra, Spanish I, General Language II and Religion I and II.

Religion

Band

Mr. John Mouzakis teaches Music History and Appreciation, and is our Band Conductor.

"Quietly there Clarinets, softly." Mr. J. Mouzakis leads the band in performance as he does in practice.

Under her careful eye, Miss Moyer's English II students, John Hereholzer, Mike Mansfield, Dave Livingston, Manual Martinez, and Dan Ashbrook, read aloud The Hitchhiker, for the rest of the class.

English

English I and II, and Special English I and II are the subjects taught by Miss Letitia Moyer.

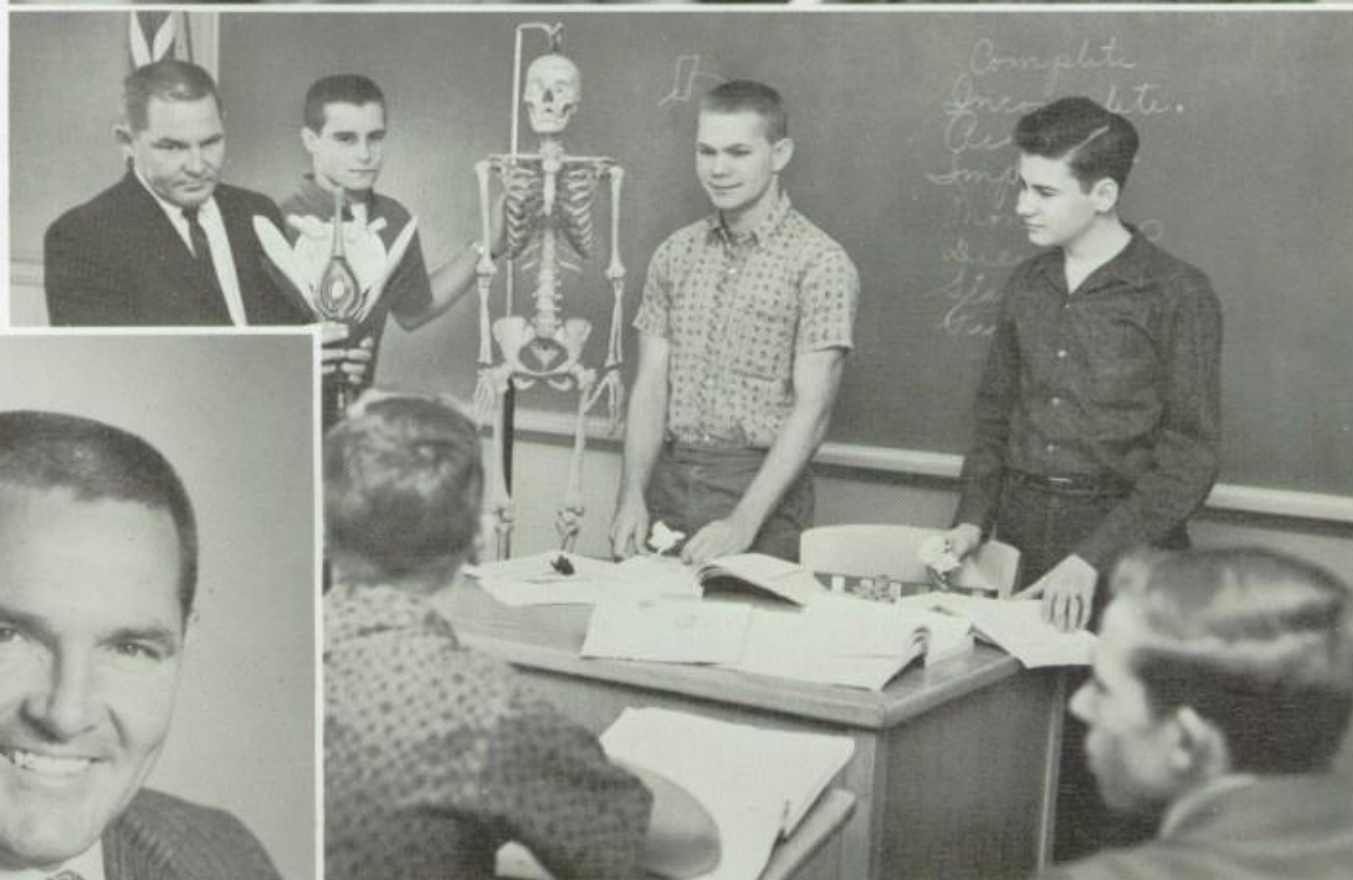

Guidance co-ordinator and Dean of Boys, Father Eugene O'Toole also teaches Latin I, III, IV, and Religion III.

Father O'Toole explains the art of mastering the subjunctive, imperative, and indicative moods of the Latin language to a Freshman student.

Mr. James O'Connor has spent his eighth year at Pius X teaching Biology and Physiology. He is also coach of the Varsity Basketball team.

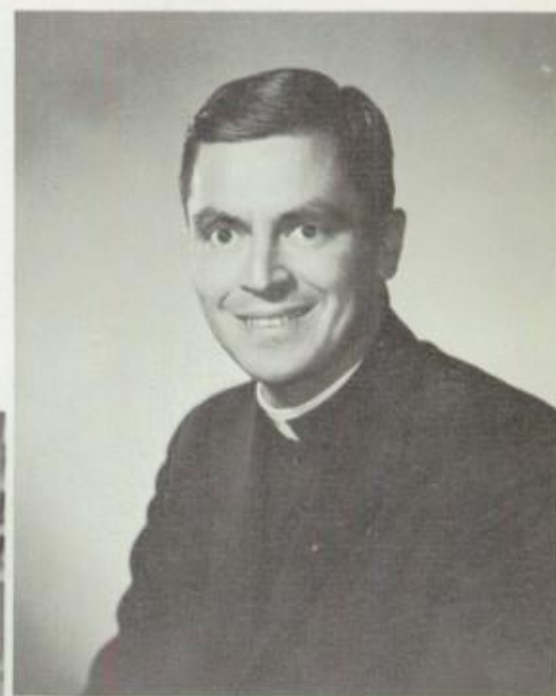

Mr. O'Connor, Joe Van Sickle, Rene Gascou, Mike Farkas show the parts of the flower, and introduce "Poor Yorick" to the rest of the group.

Civics And Sociology

Running our government must be serious business, judging from the faces of these Seniors in Father Parnassus' Civics class. Clete Adelman, Ron Busch, George Kossler and Mike Paul listen attentively to the intricacies of "How a Bill Becomes a Law."

Father Parnassus, who is Dean of Faculty, teaches Civics, and History III.

Home Economics

Mrs. Max Pappe teaches girls the art of homemaking in her Sewing and Foods classes.

Who lost the cake mix? Mrs. Pappe reads the cake recipe for her Foods students, Susie Majoras, Donna Brown, Vicki Bartolomeo, and Jo Anne Spink.

French

Sister Mary Patricia, D.M.J., moderator of Sophomore Girls' Homeroom 219, teaches French I, II, III, and IV.

C. McPeck, C. Kauffman, M. Piccolo, F. Lewis, and M. Knight listen with Sr. M. Patricia as Tom Jacobs prepares the record for today's French lesson.

Physical Education

These boys have taken time out from class to "pose" as Mr. Pohl's P.E. class.

Mr. Pohl instructs the Boys' Physical Education classes and coaches the Freshman and J.V. football team.

Business Education

Miss Janis Potter teaches Short-hand and Business Practice classes here at Pius X.

Miss Potter teaches students to advance the cause of Christ in the business world as she instills in her classes principles that should guide secretaries and bookkeepers. N. Guzman, A. Mercer and G. Mastri exhibit some of the skills.

God be with you. Sister Rosa Mystica

Sister Rosa Mystica seems to enjoy playing a tape of Macbeth far more than her English IV students, Mike Paul, Butch Holmberg, and Jack O'Connell enjoy taking notes.

Along with English III and IV and Advanced Composition classes, Sister Rosa Mystica, I.H.M., moderates Freshmen Girls' Homeroom 119.

English

General Language

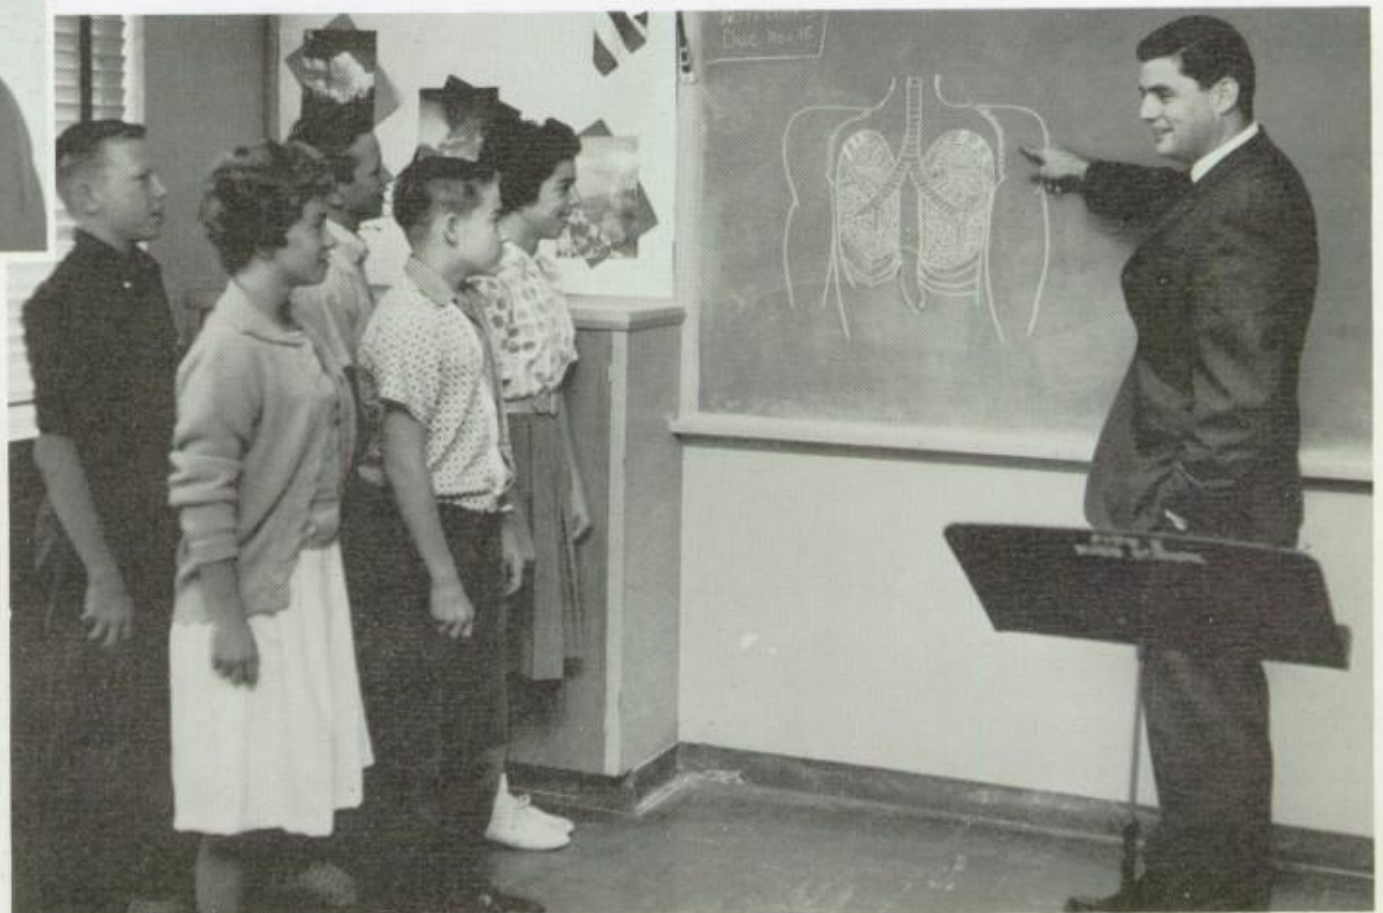

Moderator of Freshmen Girls' Home-213, Sister Mary Rosaria, C.S.J.O., teaches General Language I, II and Spanish II.

Sister Mary Rosaria, conducts the General Language II in the singing of Spanish songs to aid their Spanish pronunciation and enunciation.

"Inhale, exhale, explode!" Mr. Schaffer coaches Speech I students, Bill Wade, Bill Powell, Nancy Underwood, Mike Knight, and Sandra McFarland.

Mr. Alan Schaffer, moderator of Junior Boys' Homeroom 210, teaches Speech, and English II and III.

Speech

Wood Shop

To enable boys to learn the rudiments of wood, metal and auto works, the Industrial Arts Department opens several shop classes under the tutelage of Mr. R. Sessions.

The boys working so strenuously on their Wood Shop projects are l. to r.—Bob Foreman, Andy Enriquez, Mike McRaven, Jack Mills, Roy Roberts, and Jerry Mahon.

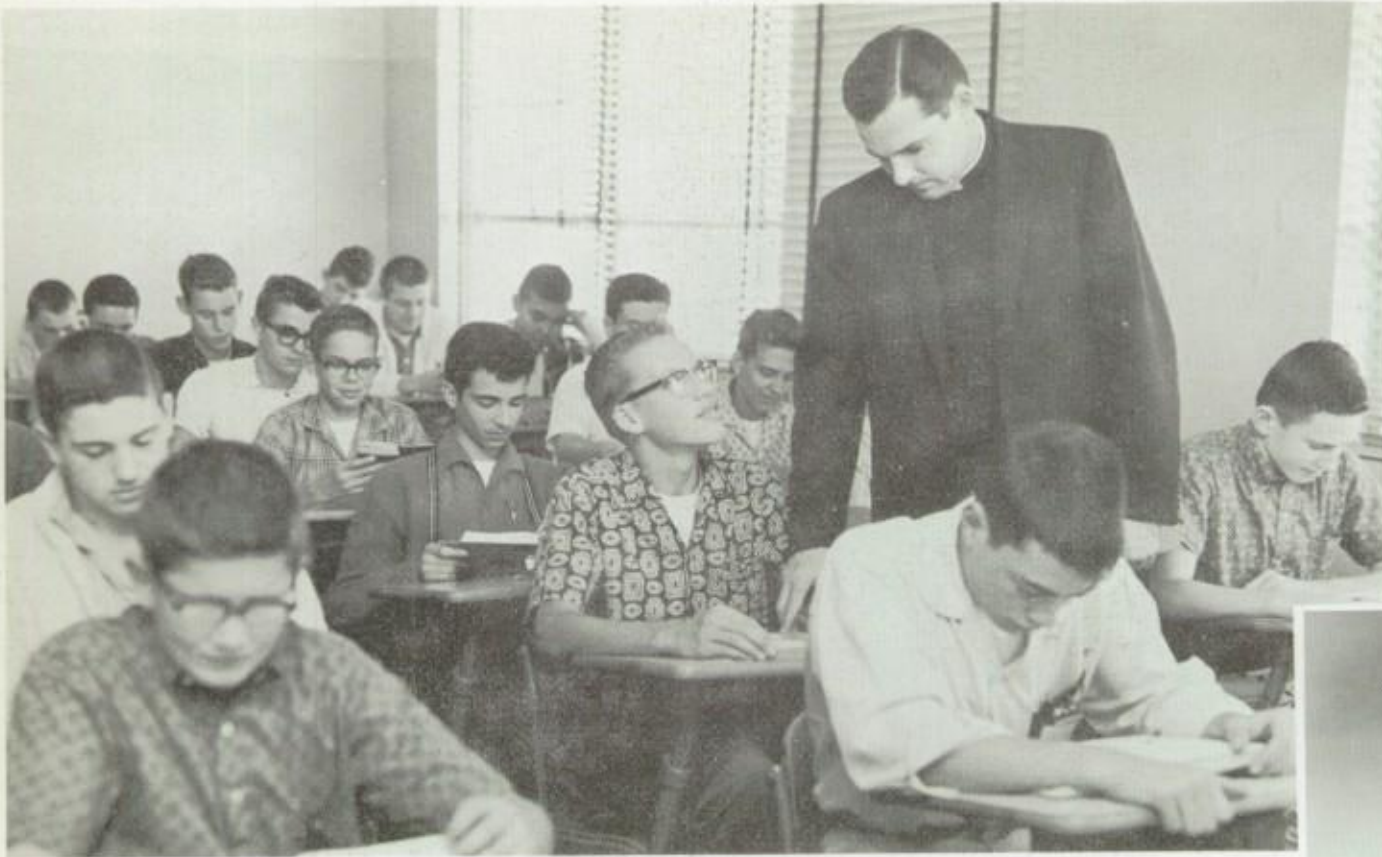

Music

"Now then, Patricia Gutierrez, where is Middle C?" inquires Sister Therese Martin of a member of the Freshman Glee class.

Sister Therese Martin, D.M.J., teaches her students the "sound of music" and she is moderator of Sophomore Girls' Homeroom 121. Her singing groups include the Madrigals.

Religion

Father Lawrence Walsh, Moderator of Junior Boys' Home-room 208, teaches Religion II and also moderates the Freshman class.

P. Millikan seems to be the only one to need Father Walsh to point out the proper page and place. Sophomores of III chiefly, they show grave concern over the Religion lesson.

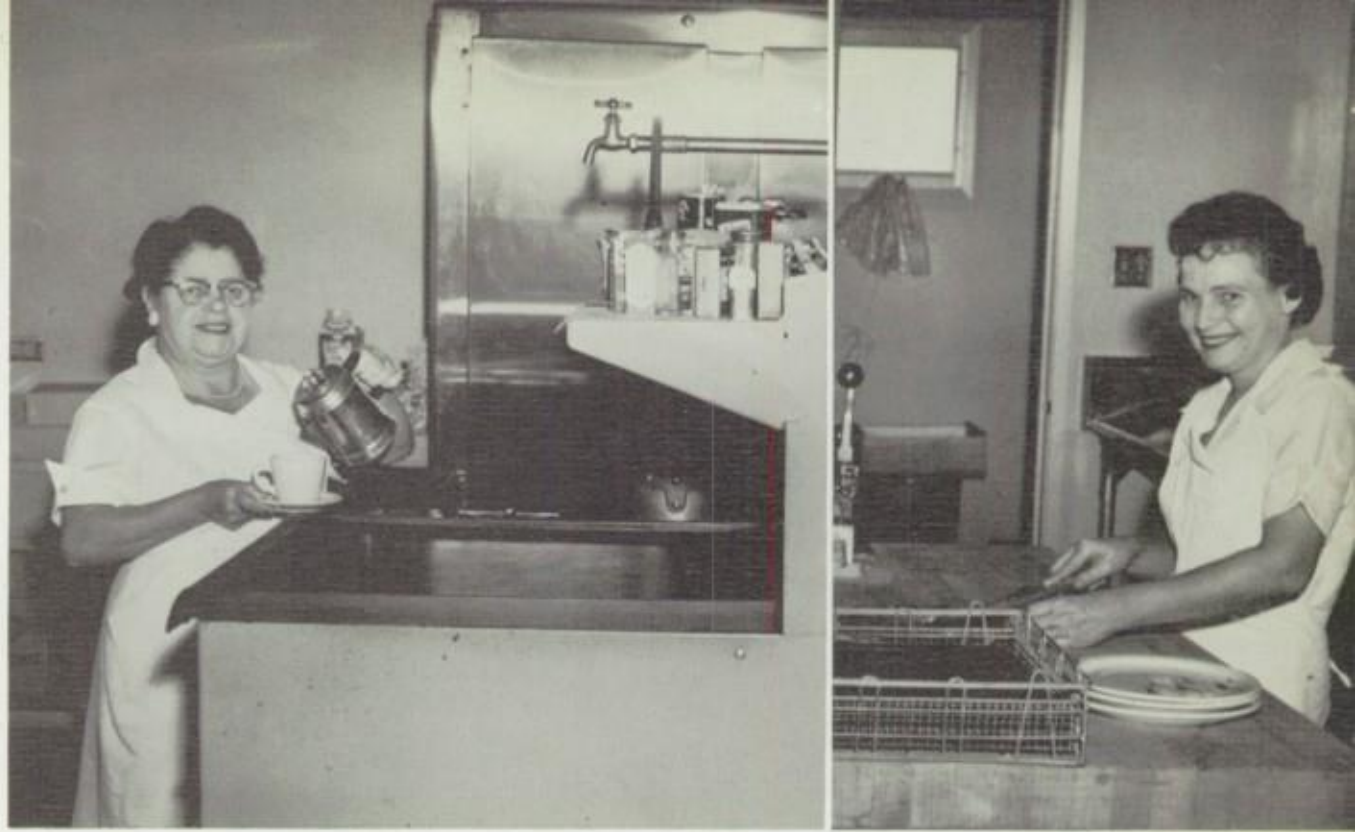

Physical Education

Miss Mary Ann Warde, teacher of Freshmen Physical Education classes, coaches the J.V. and Freshmen ball teams, too.

The easiest way to keep a sprightly figure is to persist daily in exercises, so Miss Warde puts these Freshmen through their paces.

The heads of our faculty dining room are Mrs. McGoldrick and Mrs. Rodden.

Loyal and ever-ready, Mr. Poindexter, Mr. Englund, Mr. Carroll, and Mr. Wilson, try to outshine Mr. Clean.

These smiling custodians of our student cafeteria are H. Renaldo, M. Gentry, H. Ducharme.

Seniors

Steady, undulating,

Firm, yet

Bursting with intensity

It its own rhythm:

Drumlike, the Senior

Influence on the school,

Persistent, persuasive,

Holding all parts

Of the symphony

To the Pius X tempo—

Percussion roll

Of four years' growing

Attains its climax

As graduating feet and hearts

Set up a thunder

In the grand finale.

Hi, good buddy!
Remembers me and my true love over the
the summer. Stay real cute and such a good athlete. Be real good over the summer
(even though you might want to go
a little bad). See ya
next year I hope.
Your goodest buddy

Juniors

Bold and strong

The brass notes

Sound—

Junior voices

Strong in assurance

Of young virile strength

And youth experience.

Strange contrasting sounds

Of new maturity—

Long blue sax

Voices, wrapt in melancholy

Next to a soaring horn,

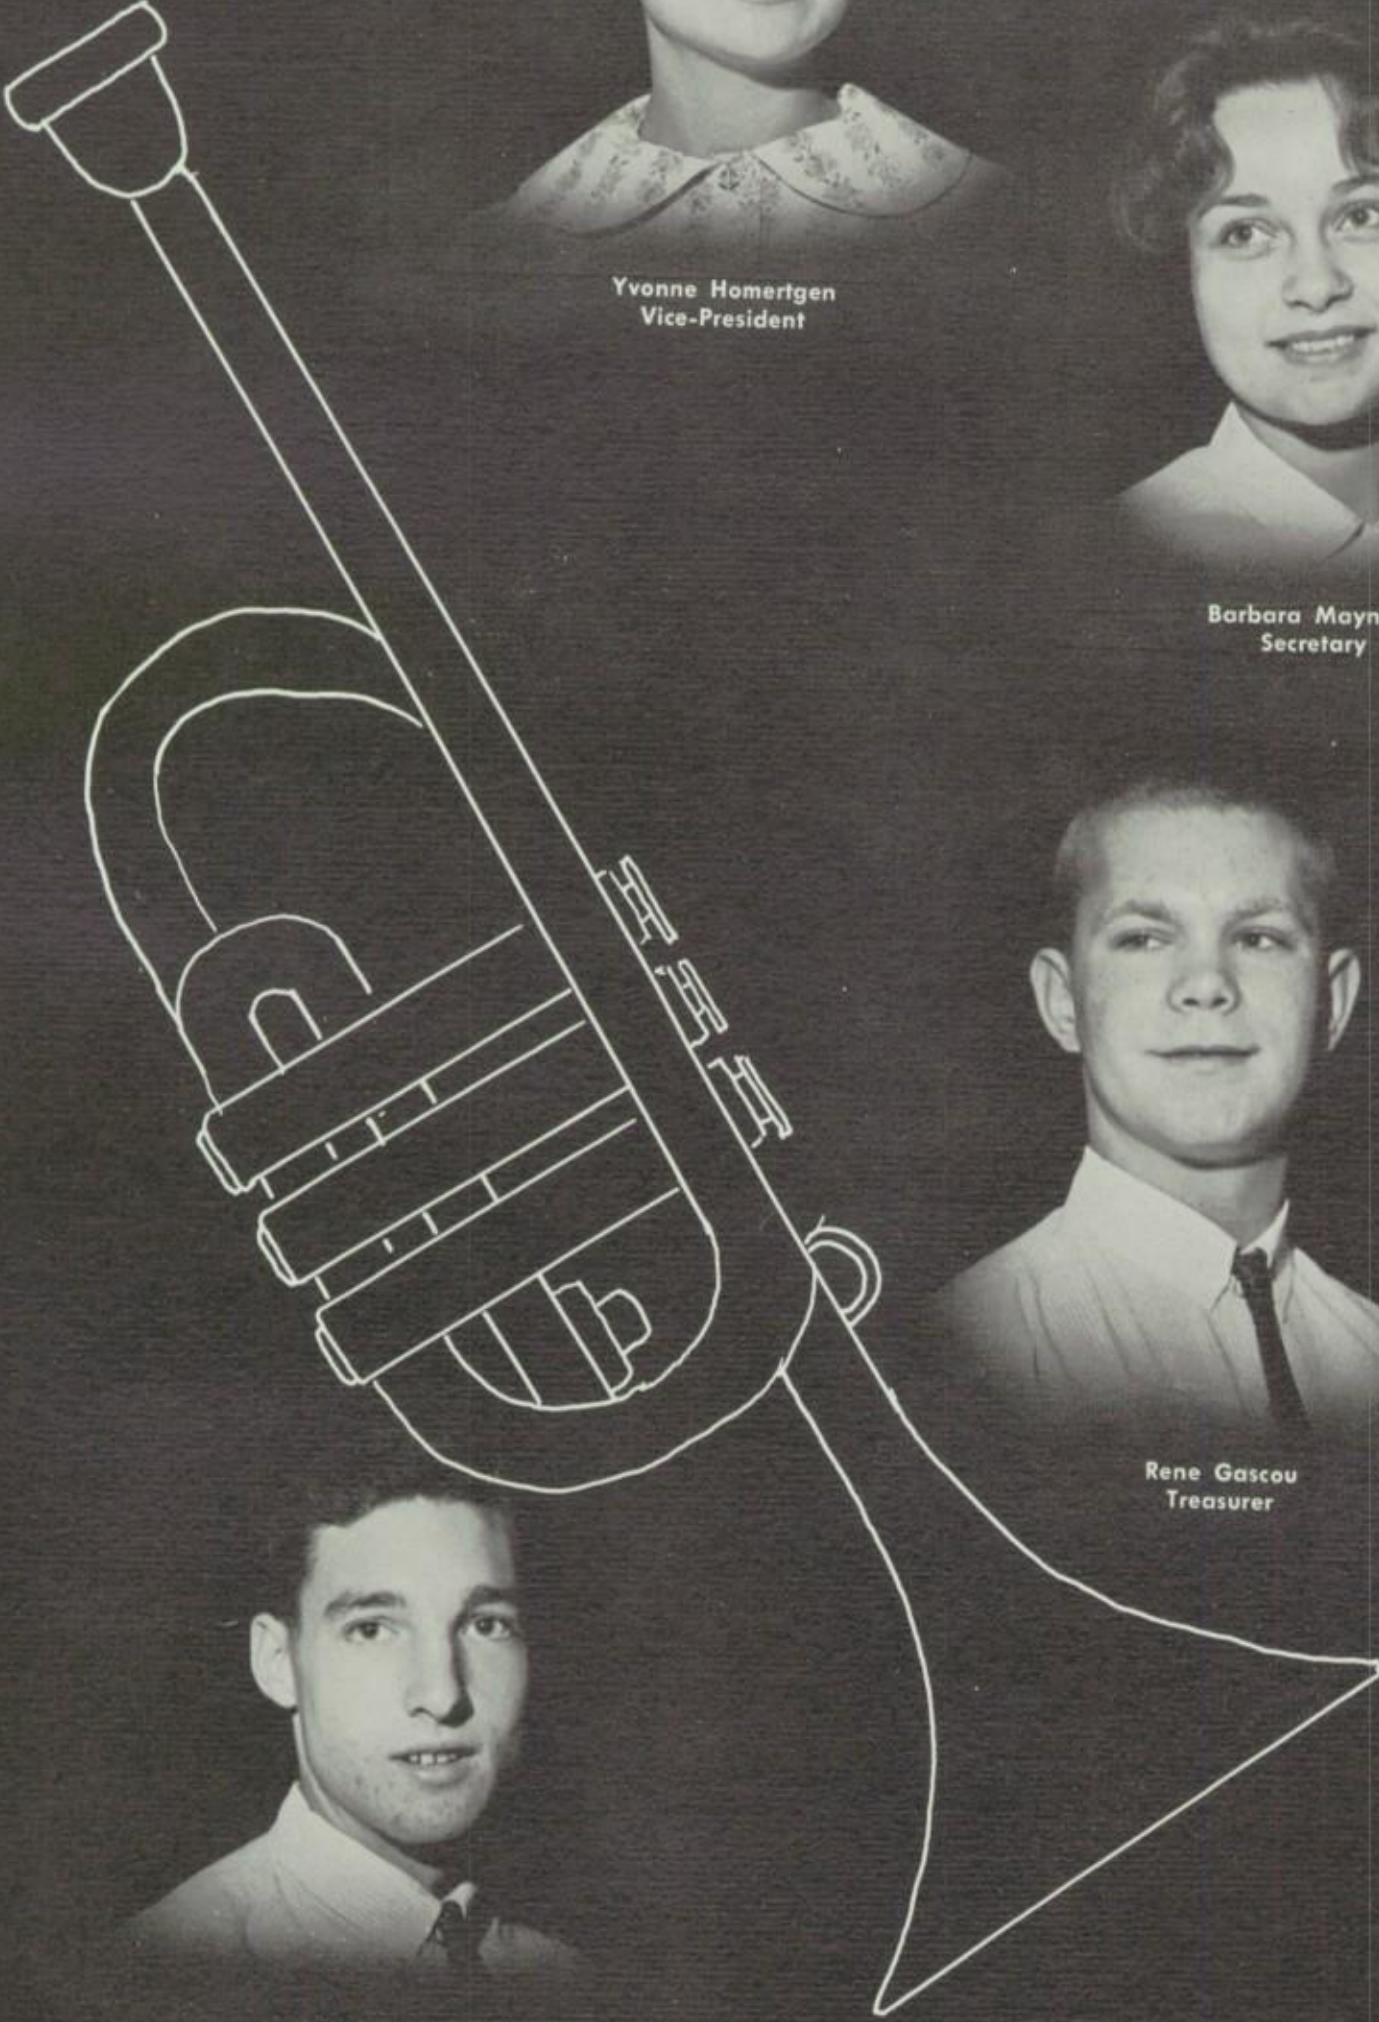

And then . . .

Crash of cymbal excitement—

Class ring

And first prom.

Sophomores

Violins, violas, basses

Sing out in unity

Born of common practice,

From all spheres

Of Sophomore activity,

Ever stretching, dipping,

Soaring to their score

And the tempo of the school.

Brightly, shyly,

Bravely,

They proffer their

Part of harmony

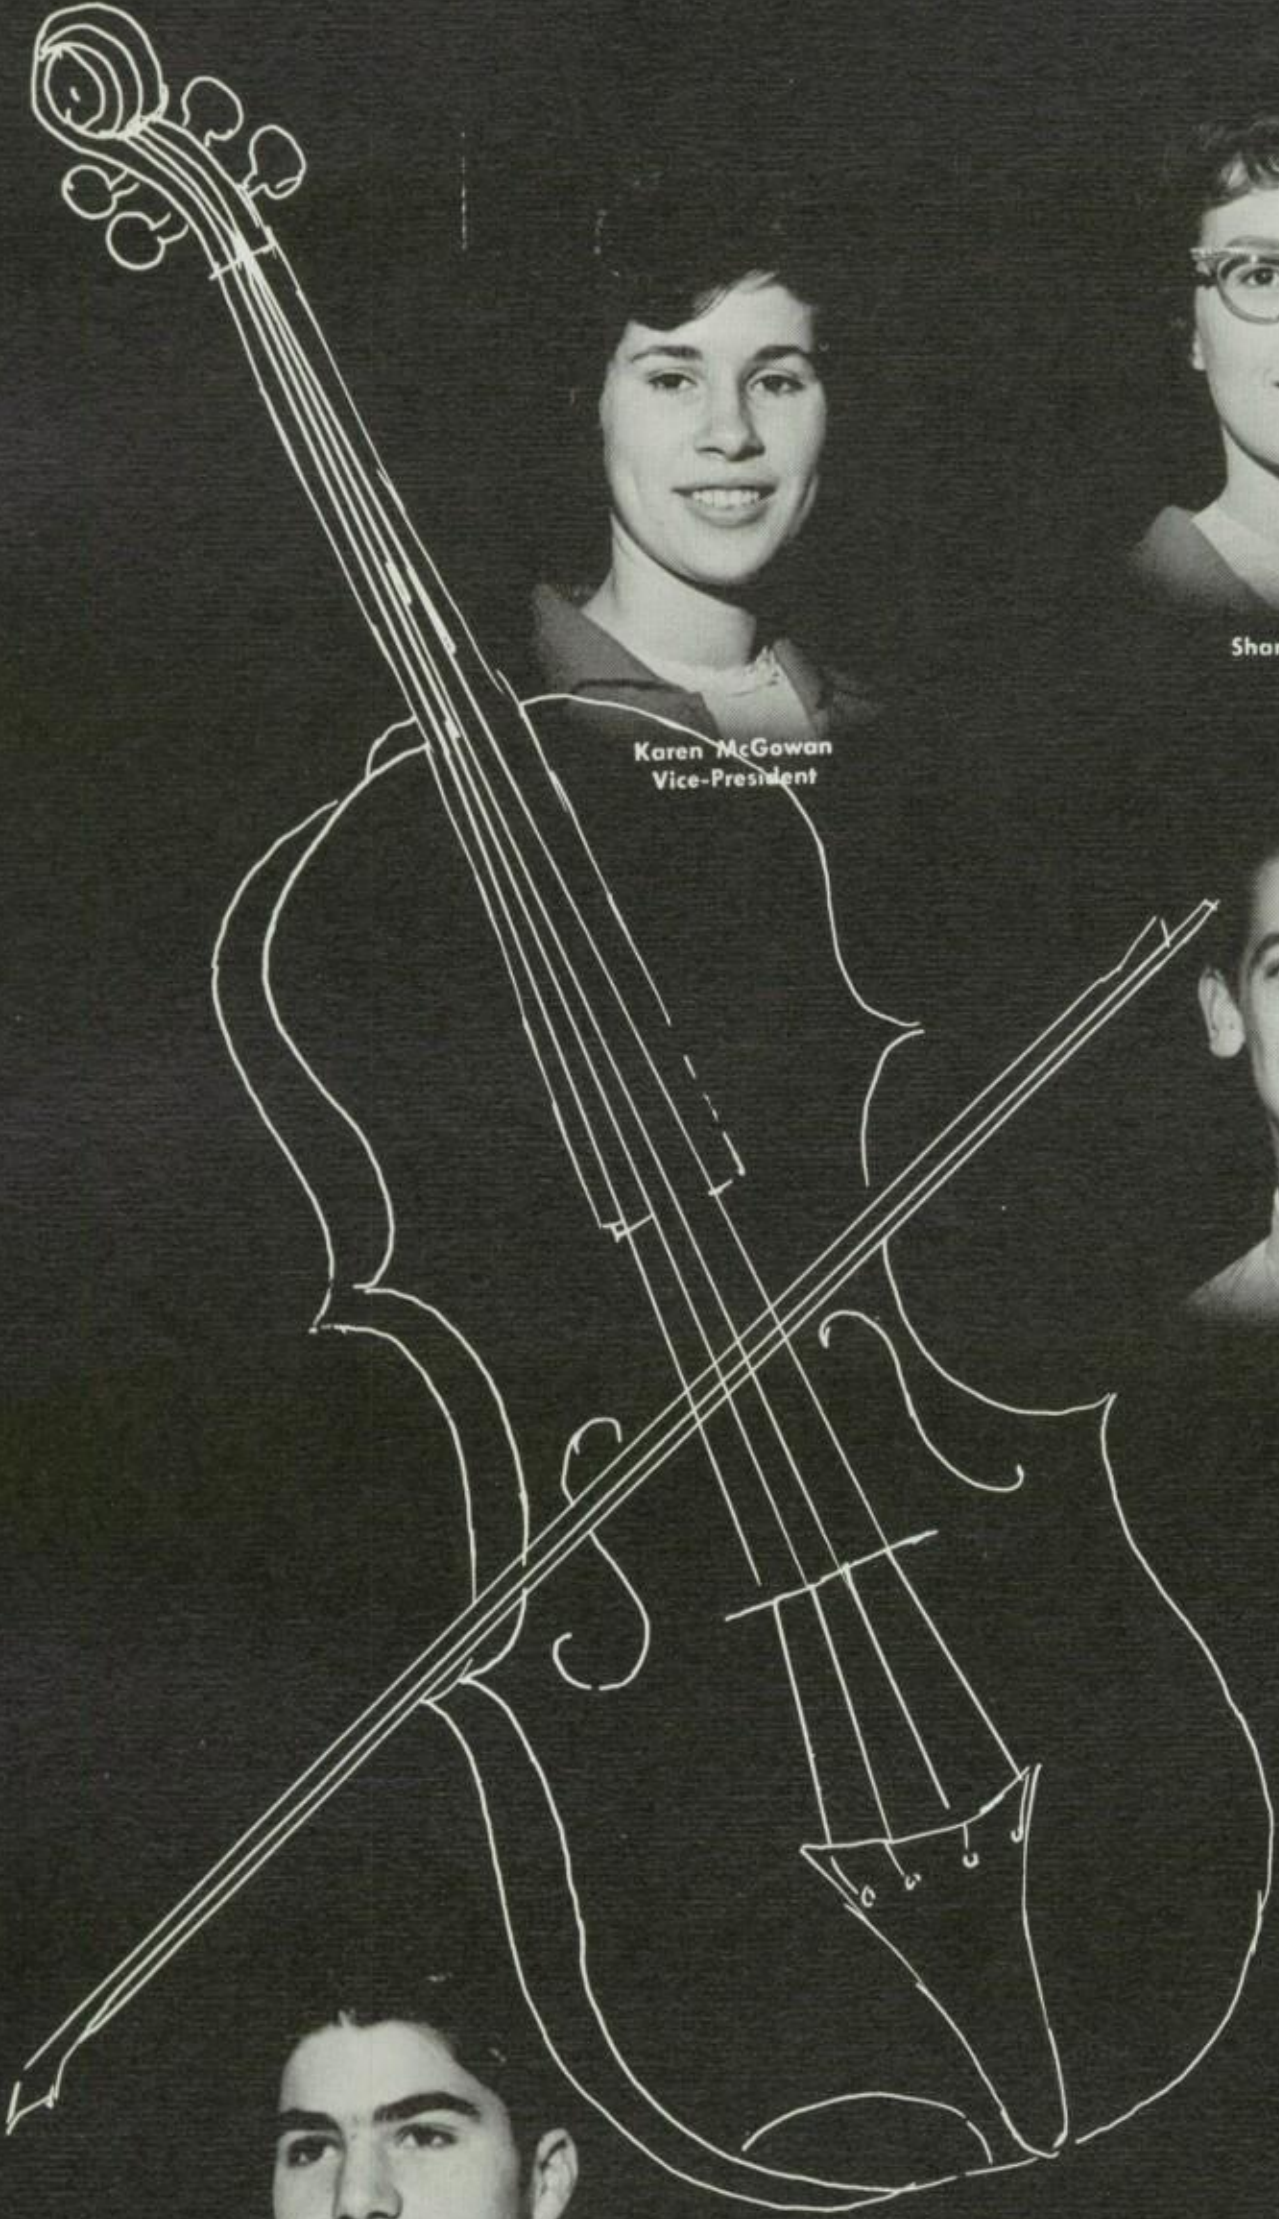

To the student symphony—

Sagacity and

Youthful foolishness

Intermingled.

Freshmen

Thin sweet notes—

Young voices

Mingling hope and fear

In single sound.

Full, resonant notes—

Clarinet sound

Of new friendships,

Challenges.

Shrill, high notes—

Near-painful intensity

Of concentration,

Open books and chewed pencils.

Pure velvet notes—

Light foot, soft cheek,

Innocence of eye.

Top: Coach Day surveys situation carefully as Coach Adams instructs player before sending him in. Bottom: Coach Day helps photographer by demonstrating stance to players.

"Will he make it?" Everyone in the crowd watches during the tense moment of the game.

Serra defender brings down Joe Rodriguez illegally by use of Joe's facemask.

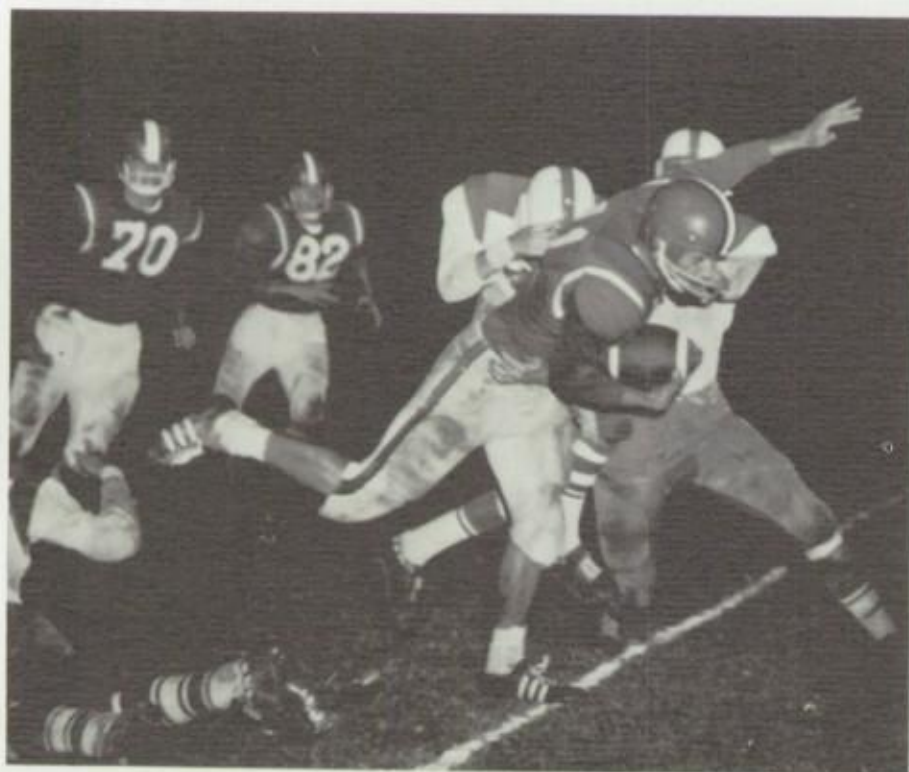

Photographer takes pictures of our Football team.

"That's the way to go, all the way." Crowd cheers long run.

Two Serra defenders try to tackle J. Rodriguez, but Joe has other ideas.

Jim Rodden fakes and squirms past Notre Dame man for yardage.

Don Bishop shows photographer stance he used as defensive end.

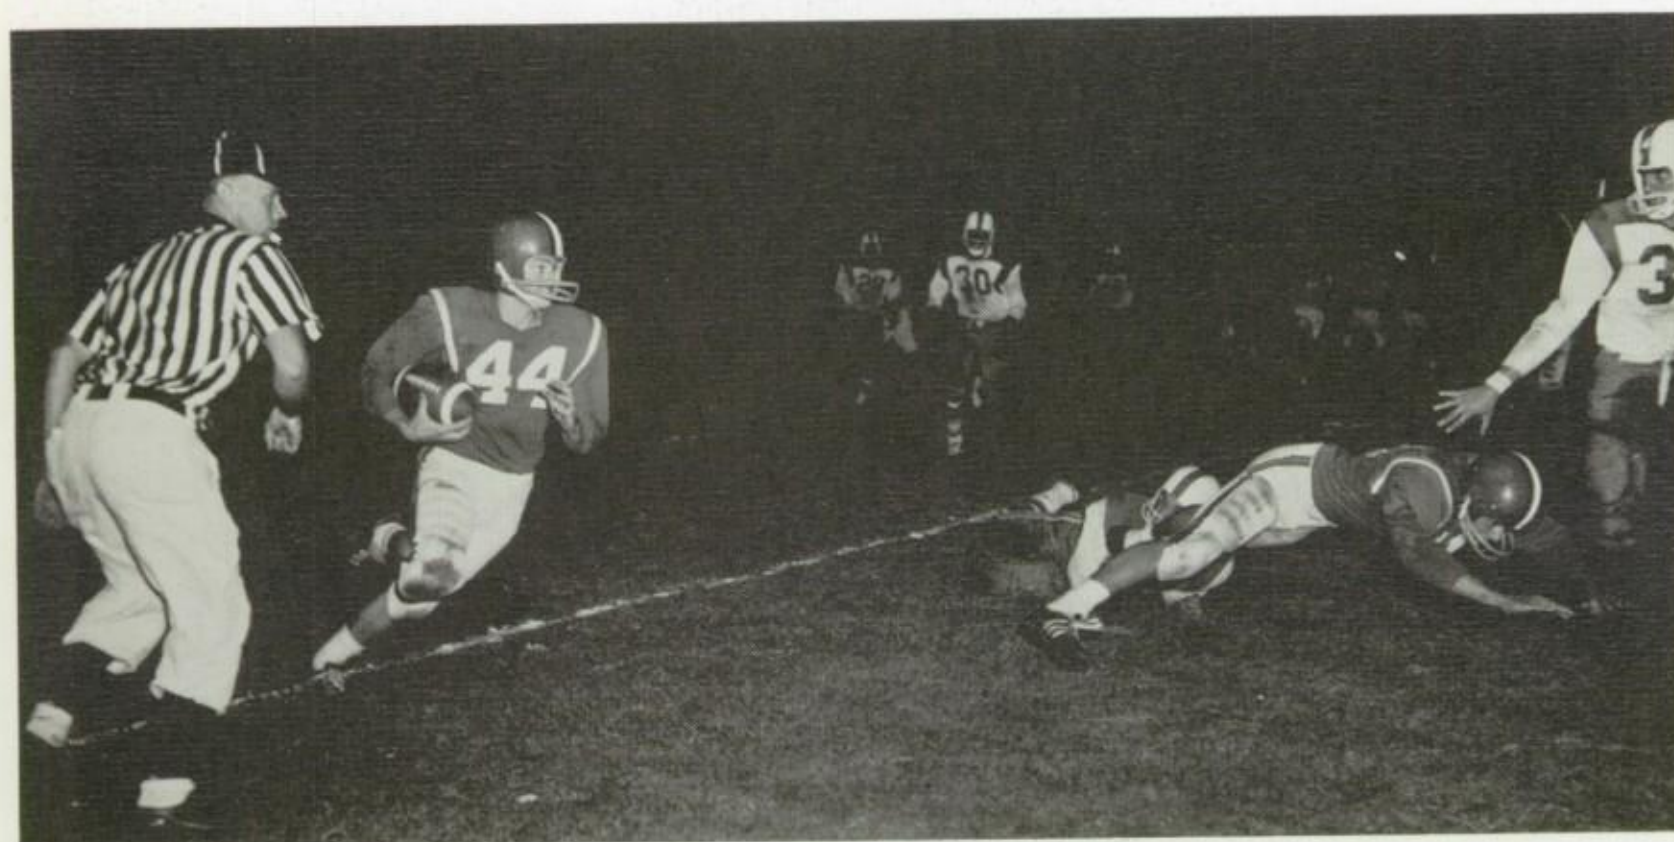

Backs and line: (L to R) J. VanSickle, W. Meager, J. Baker, J. Rodden, J. Oliver, M. Hovel, P. Wertz, J. Hoffman, J. Klempin.

A gasp from Judy Edwards and a thunder of applause as Father Cranham names Judy 1962 Homecoming Queen. All eyes, including Carol Owen's, Anne Martin's, Kathy Gerath's, Sheila Chaves' and Diane Gibson's are on the queen.

Roy Kauffman and John Baker led team out for win against Serra.

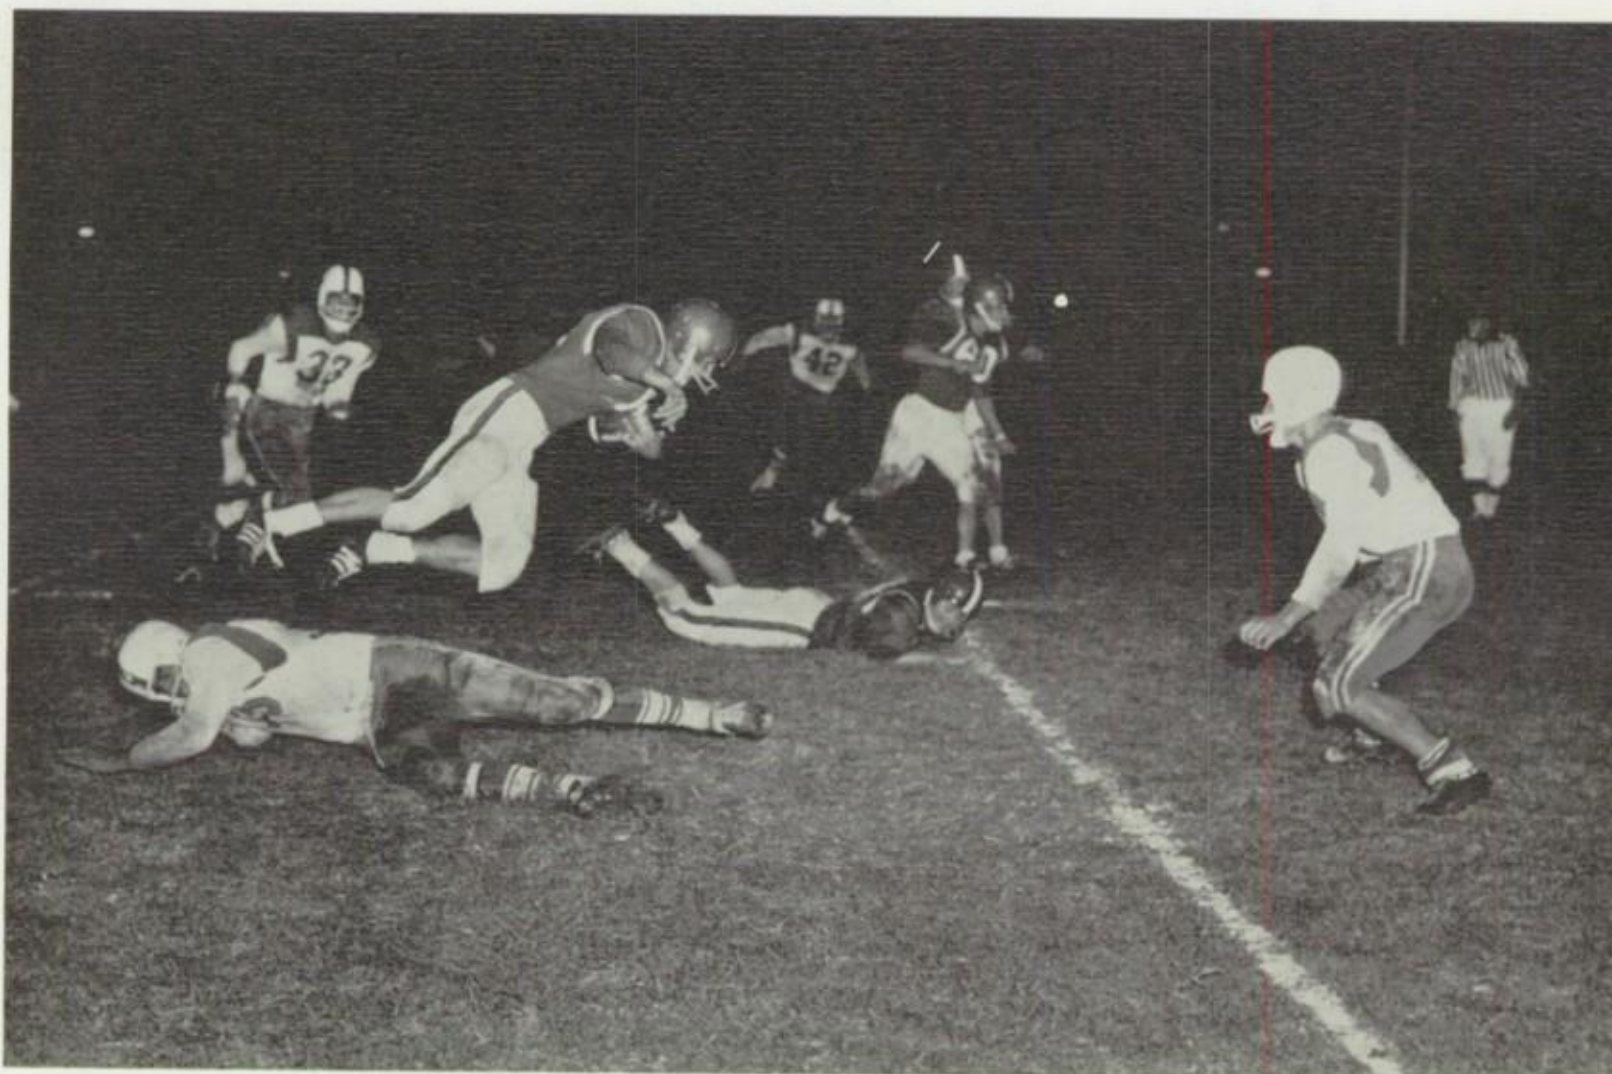

Jim Rodden rounds end for good yardage as Joe Rodriguez lays block on defenders.

Walt Meagher awaits ball with open arms as Ron Rodriguez prepares to throw a block on unsuspecting defender.

Joe Rodriguez is tripped up after a long gain in the Serra victory.

Basketball

High-jumping, straight-shooting, and team-work are the makings of good basketball. All hands stretching, reaching, to make the rebound that will score, whether in the game on the court or the game of life—will be the body-building, soul-building results of all-out endeavors to win cheerfully or to lose gracefully.

There can be little doubt as to the superiority of Pius X's basketball team this year. Under the intensive training of Mr. James O'Connor, our victorious quintet came out first in the Catholic League with a 9-3 record and produced the top scorer in the C.I.F., Bob Burns.

All of this came about through the seemingly untiring efforts of the Warriors in the Compton Tournament, where we placed second and where Bob Burns, Clete Adelman, and Mike Palardy made the All Tournament Team; and through the continuous endeavors of Pius X against the tough competition of the Catholic League.

Add this together, and you come up with the best team Pius X High School ever had!!

Burns drives high for tip-off.

Adelman contributes this tip along with 30 points in victory over Loyola.

Mr. Shaeffer

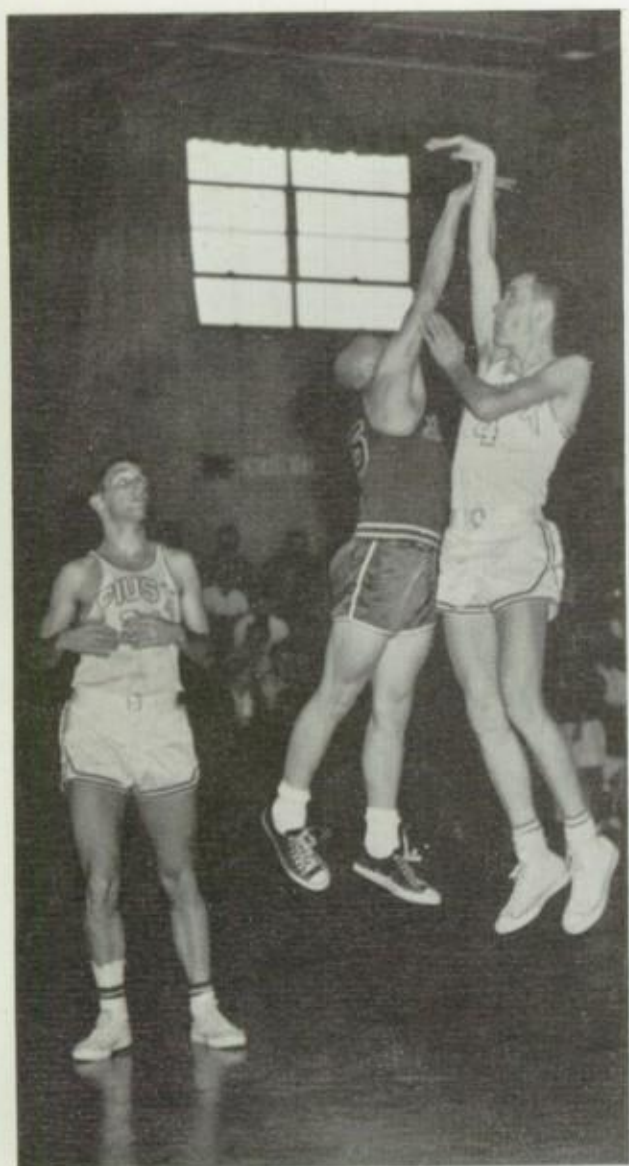

Mr. Heidemann

Father Walsh

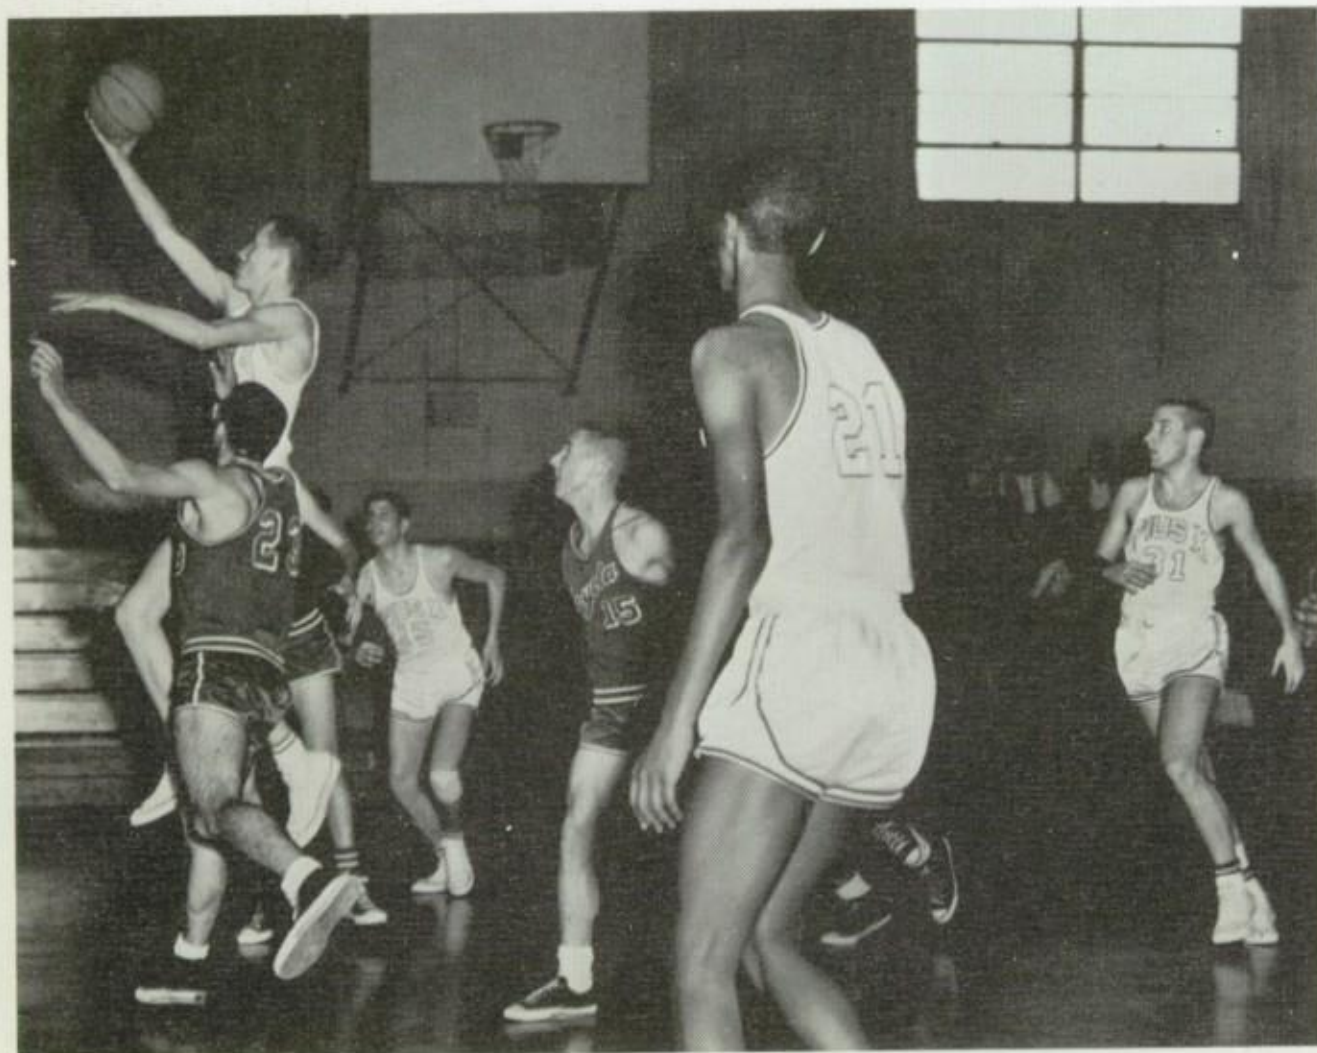

Mr. O'Connor

Adelman fouled on route for two points.

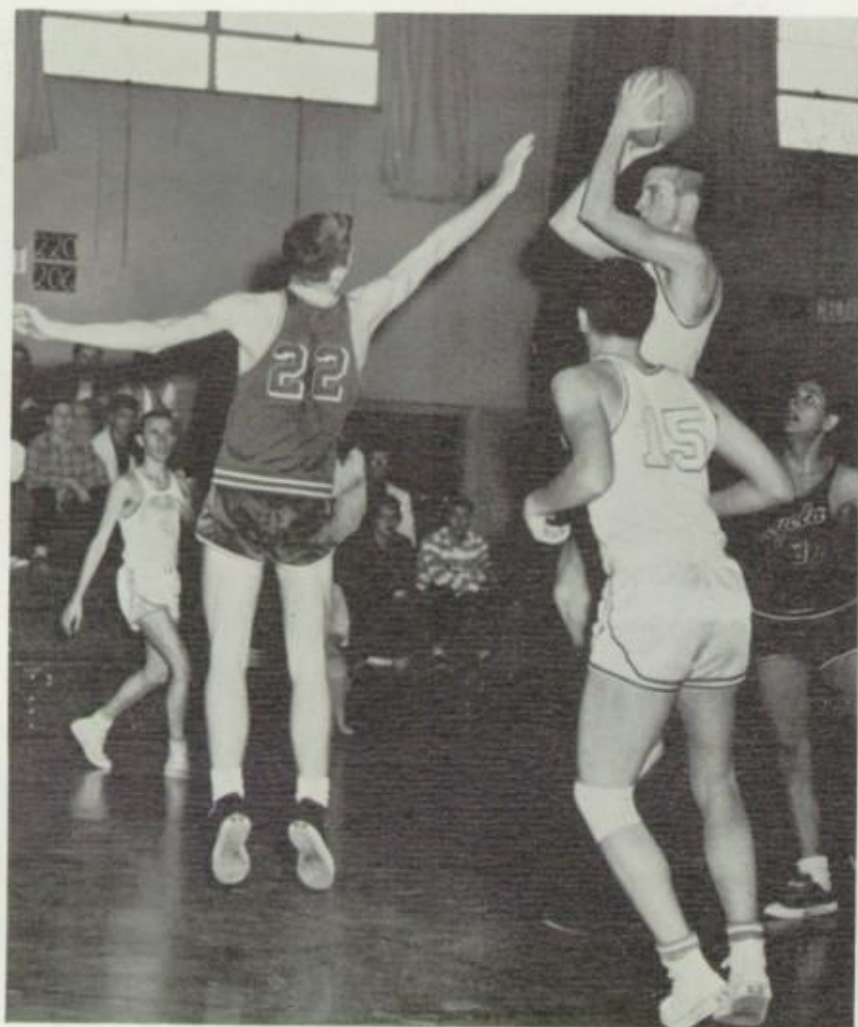

Sophomore, Jim LaCour, dumps in two despite Loyola defenders.

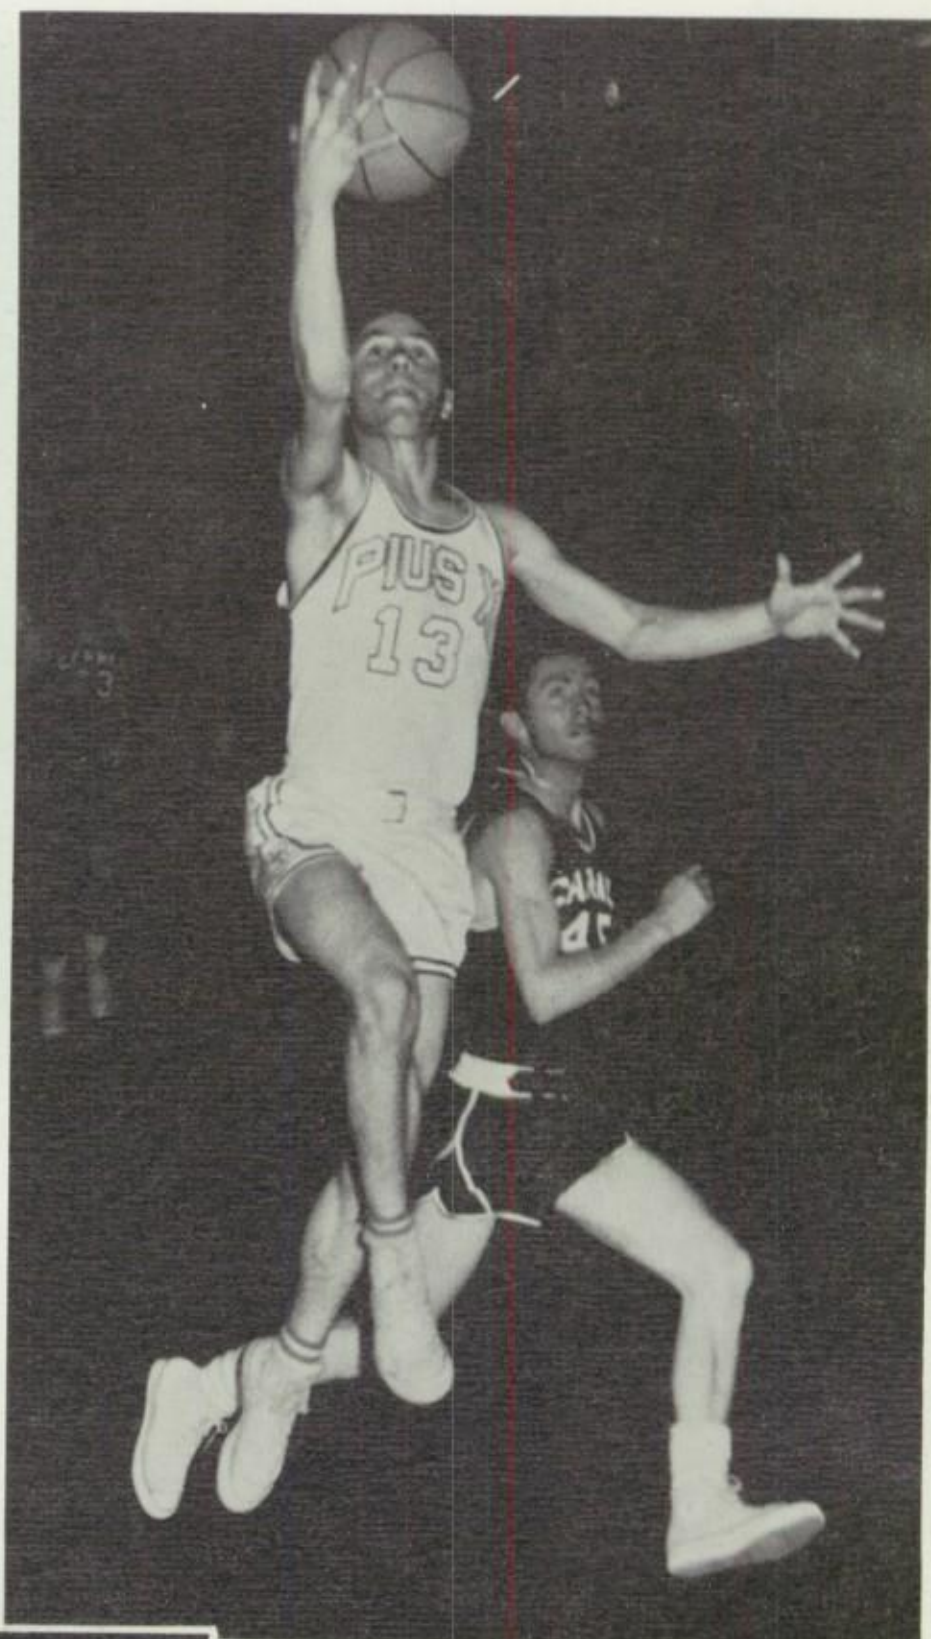

Senior guard, Clete Adelman drives through Loyola defense.

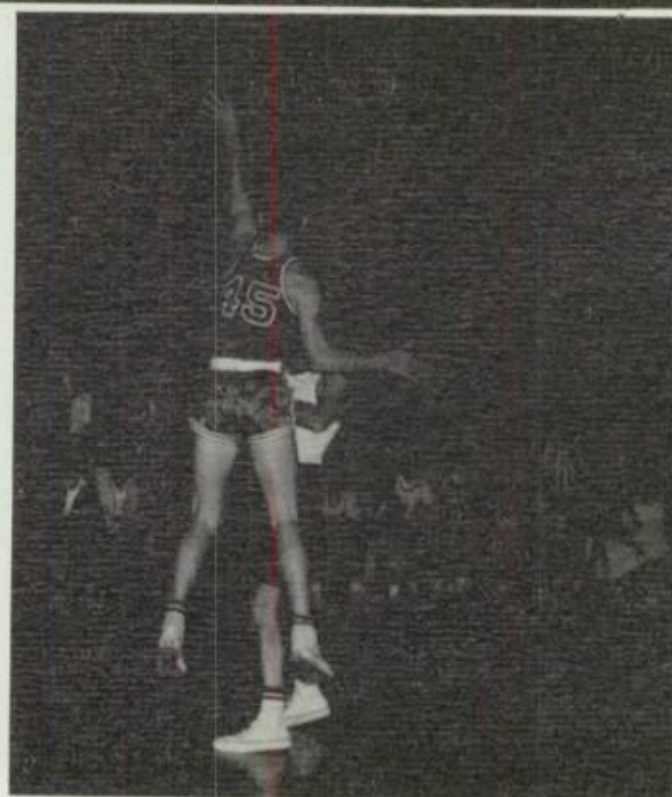

Larry Civitelli attempts a one pointer from the goal line.

The outstanding endeavors on the part of the Warriors this season proves that Pius X truly earned their title, "CATHOLIC LEAGUE CHAMPIONS."

Players are: (L to R) Top: B. Burns, L. Civitelli, C. Adelman in foreground. Top, R: Mike Palardy. Bottom (L to R): B. Burns, L. Civitelli, J. Bowermaster.

Father Boudreau and two spectators look on as a Warrior tests his skills at broad jumping.

Jim Montoya puts every effort into this last lap.

Paul Shaheen races on for Pius X glory as the clock slowly ticks away.

Jerry McGinis is practically a blurr in this shot but he came in waaaayyyy ahead.

Mike Duffy is just inches ahead of Rene Gascoe in the dash, and going faster!

Larry Stewart breaks the tape with gusto as Patty Konoske willingly holds it.

Pat Whalen tries hard for the pole vault and the score shows he made it!

The high jump, too, is a hard one in which to compete, but it is good going if you don't topple the bar!

Mike Jensen attentively keeps score, with plenty of help from onlookers anxious for a winning team.

Above center: A tense moment as the pole vaulter soars overhead. He clears the bar easily!

Fr. James Keefe watches interestingly as the broad jump is performed.

Pius X Joins St. Anthony's

Pius X Cheerleaders work hard to keep up the enthusiasm of the spirit of the plays. The cooperation of the Pius X student body matched that of the Saints' cheering section as seen in the picture above. Check the score-board! 54-23.

Center Judy Kossler jumps for the ball in hopes of giving the ball to our team in the opening moments of the Saint Anthony's Tournament game.

A Winner

Richard Densmore pictured here with the trophy he won presented by the Junior American Bowling Congress of the U.S. Richard bowls on the Sanctioned League in the third highest series in the nation for Junior Bowlers. His series scratch was 711. His games were 234, 232, and 245.

Congratulations Richard!

Softball

"It happens every Spring." Come the 21 March and all students feel a something in their blood which makes it seem necessary to join something and be a part of something. So we see students exercising, practicing for drill team tryouts. New cheerleaders, and hopeful song leaders are also busy learning new routines new songs, and getting loads of new sore muscles. But, what would spring be without softball? So we see here, some of the maneuvers of the tryout teams for that sport also. Work out on the Downey Little League field, a field on our grounds, but given the Little Leaguers for their games, must be shared by them and our own every day after school, Saturdays and Sundays as well.

Mrs. Eve Caldero and Miss Mary Ann Warde take turns helping the girls get into the 'swing' of the game for another successful season, we hope!

"Slimnastics" records were introduced in P.E. classes this winter. Sooooo — measurements and weights were checked and recorded so that all could show a "before and after" figure — at least on paper! Ahhhhh, but look further. The same people indulge in "in-between-meal" snacks and popcorn — the result — more exercise. That's not the way to lose weight girls!

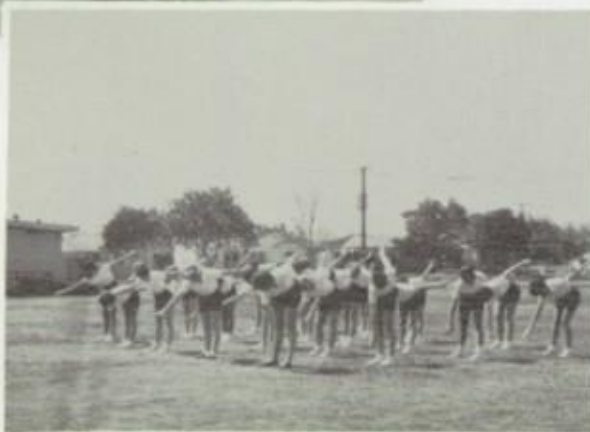

First Aid

R. Tramutola ties F. Bailey with a wrist bandage as M. L. Pacheco and J. Anderson watch, Mrs. Lefebvre applies an arm bandage to M. Cox.

"This is how you apply a head bandage." F. Bailey is the victim as M. L. Pacheco and J. Anderson look on. M. Con's interest seems to be elsewhere, though.

Driver Education and Training

Driver education is enhanced through the courtesy of Paramount Chevrolet. They provided our school with a brand new car for the training part of the program.

Girls from the Sophomore training class await their turn at the wheel. It is everyone's desire and privilege to use the car and learn Sportsmanlike Driving.

Mrs. E. Caldero takes roll call at a P.E. class before getting to the fundamentals of Driver Education.

Home Nursing

Home nursing becomes a part of the Senior P.E. classes, which helps the girl learn the proper procedure for the care of the sick in the home. By this the girl is better able to care for adults or children who may need nursing care, but not away from the home environment. M. Easton, L. Nolette and A. Frick learn to make a bed properly. Learning to take temperatures is also essential to good nursing.

Retreat is the time spent in self-evaluation. This year, 1962, our retreat masters were Father O'Callahan who spoke to the male members of our student body, and Father George Cranham, brother to our principal, who gave the girls material for prayer and meditation. The posters pictured here were a small part of the preparation made ahead of time for the success of the retreat. Possibly the most significant part of this retreat was the signing of the pledge to make a good retreat, and the writing of our resolutions which should be a constant reminder of that time.

1962 Girls' Athletic Association

Father C. Cranham swears the officers into their proper office as he reads to them the many and varied obligations given to one who takes on the responsibility of an office. L. to r., they are J. Zimmer (proxy for E. Castaneda), J. Lazenby, T. O'Hare, J. Marchand, S. Gay, and J. Hubbard.

Father Cranham presents Jacquie Marchand with the gavel, symbol of her office as president of the Girls' Athletic Association.

Officers of the Girls' Athletic Association are, beginning with the lower step, President Jacqueline Marchand, Vice-president Emily Castaneda, Sergeant-at-arms Sharon Gay, Secretary Jan Lazenby, Treasurer Terry O'Hare and Pointkeeper Judi Hubbard.

The purpose of the organization known as The Girls Athletic Association is to sponsor all girls' athletic teams, promote school spirit, and develop leadership among the students.

The chief aim of this organization, however, is to teach women the need for physical fitness, moral stamina, and spiritual growth which must underlie all the above three, if virtue is to shine forth from her womanly character.

Under the moderatorship of Mrs. Eve Caldero, the G.A.A. will sponsor the Girls' grammar school tournament in basketball.

Tiara

March 19 is D-Day for TIARA'S co-editors, Jodine Grantham and Pat Noonan. Lending moral support is Mary Ellen Farwell.

In charge of all picture taking matters for the yearbook are: photography editor, Wayne Perry; chief photographer, Penny Wheeler, who was ably assisted by Danny Joynt borrowed from the SWORD and SHIELD staff.

These happy smiles on the faces of the Senior Section staff, J. Kish, P. Wilhelm, T. Brenier, Editor Muriel Pacheco, C. Riley, C. Zolla. Seated: J. Water, A. Raisola, A. Adger, will soon fade as the deadline draws nearer.

Organizers of the index, Joe Bonello and Margaret Weber, will also head the complaint department for inaccuracies in the yearbook.

Composure and serenity are not typical of the Activities' Section staff, Esperanza Gomez, co-editor Judy Cessar, and co-editor Irene Fanelli, during their working hours.

"Oh, no, we couldn't have misnumbered all the pages," groans Kathy Lenien, while editor of the Faculty Section, Kay Paumier, and her staff, Luis Morales, Anne Woods and Janice Moser, find the situation humorous.

Financing and advertisement are handled by the Business Section, whose staff is, l. to r.: C. Mitchell, editor, Y. Rodriguez, S. Gonzales, L. Nolette, P. Terrameo, J. Benadom.

The determined look on Carol Stegman's face reflects the attitude of her entire staff for Girls' Sports. They are, l. to r.: K. Ghormley, R. Bergschneider, co-editor P. Stewart, co-editor C. Stegman, V. Bartolomeo, D. Riding, and F. Grayston.

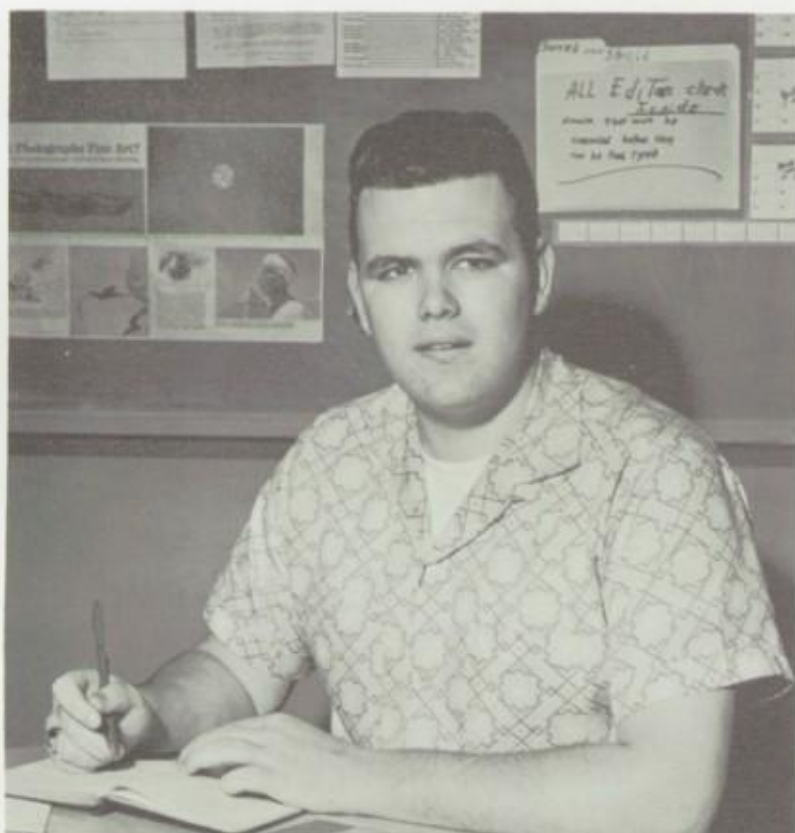

The Boys' Sports Section, edited by Kathy McGowan and Bob Burns, is filled with the victories and defeats of our teams.

The job of typing copy for the TIARA falls on Linda Geraci, editor Linda Kay Neilson, and Linda Collins.

Sword and Shield

Chief Editor Dave Bardsley oversees the production of the entire SWORD AND SHIELD.

Joe Di Francesco, Business Manager, has the task of making "ends meet" for the paper.

Sports Editors, Jim Rodden and Lee Pursell seek to provide coverage for all sports events for the students.

News Editor Judy Cessar and Assistant News Editor Elizabeth Cheshier check for mistakes in the layout of the front page.

The Feature Editors assemble the two inside pages. Mike Hoferer, Randy Martin, Sharon Gay, and Sue Patrick (from l. to r.) check the deadline for the current issue.

Sword And Shield

Photographer Danny Joynt gets his assignment from Photography Editor Karen Lazzaro.

Pat Ainsworth as Copy Editor has the important job of readying stories for publication.

Circulation Editors Bill Brady, Gregg Baker, and Cathy Laner find it interesting to compare the make-up of exchange papers.

Father Cranham introduces the various members of the faculty who spoke to the parents at a meeting held in November, to acquaint them with works of the school in general.

Parents listened to members of the faculty in rather realistic fashion since it was necessary they use desks instead of chairs for the evening.

The Parent-Faculty Organization saw its first stages begun under the guidance of Father Cranham and a small committee who worked out the plans to be followed for the larger group. This ground-work was followed by a joint meeting, parents and Faculty, in January. Here the works of the organization were explained by Mr. Ed Shaheen who also asked for nominations for officers, works the groups could work out for the benefit of the school, students, faculty and the parents group. Officers were elected in February, and the pictures on this page show the results of the organization of the Mothers for their first meeting. Mrs. Helen Lazenby, President of the group is shown at the "mike" for her first meeting. Father Cranham speaks with some of the members after the meeting, and the orchestra which helped entertain the group. This orchestra is from the Sisters of Saint Joseph Motherhouse. Some of the members of this orchestra are graduates of Pius X High School.

The Officers for the P.F.O. are as follows:

P.F.O. President — Ed Shaheen, Vice-president Wm. Bowermaster, Secretary-Treasurer Mary Molander.

Men's Group: President Dick Procknow, 1st Vice-president Bob O'Reilly, 2nd Vice-president Lee Bratten, Secretary Ray Heidman, Treasurer Bob Martin.

Women's Group: President Helen Lazenby, 1st Vice-president Genevieve Apel, 2nd Vice-president Betty Gay, Secretary Carol Civitelli, Treasurer Ann Maiolfi.

Members of the speech classes and members of the debate teams are shown here. Up the steps, nearest the wall are: Linda McFarland, Valeen Szabo, Sue Utermohlen, John Powell, Leo Delaney, John Jurewitz. Middle row: Kathy Gildea, Nancy Underwood, Rosemarie Thornton, Barbara Cummings, David Miller. Row 1: Yolanda Gallegos, Al Miller, John Newman. Debates were held here at Pius X and at various other surrounding schools in the Forensic League.

Winners in the annual Lions Club Speech Tournament proudly display their trophies, certificates, and etc. They are, l. to r.: Becky Conrad, honorable mention; Pamela Starr, second place; Sue Patrick, first place; Cheryl Swan, third place; and Al Miller, fourth place. From here, the first place winner has the opportunity of trying to defend the title in the finalist tournaments which offer final title, and grand prize of monetary scholarships.

Counseling and Guidance in Studies Opportunities

Father Eugene O'Toole, Dean of Counseling and Guidance, advises a group of students about college entrance exams, requirements and possibilities in scholarships. Profiting by his interest are, l. to r.: Jan Lazenby, Jodine Grantham, John Watson, John Jurewitz and John Rosales.

Business Day

Anita Vicencio, Mary Petersen, Cheryl McPeck, Carol Sedlacek, Vicky Calagna, Cheryl Zollman, and Lucy Bybee prepare to leave for the various places of Business under the guidance of Mrs. Pat Smith from the Downey Professional and Business Women's Club, who arranged transportation for those who were to attend.

The Annual Business Day provides opportunity for several members of the business department from the school to attend and participate directly in a business-of-their-choice-for-a-day. This makes the prospects of the job much more enticing and interesting, let alone giving the girls a much better chance to obtain the job in future.

Pius X Achievement Awards

Sister Mary Christina displays the plaques and certificates awarded Pius X students. Certificates are: red for having made the honor roll once; silver for B average; gold for B+ or better, having made the honor roll each semester. Plaques were awarded the highest scorer, scholastically, in each subject, and medals were given to the highest scorer on each grade level, scholastically. Medals were also given for high scorers citizenshipwise. Plaques were given to seniors only, and medals are also reserved for the senior class.

1961 and 1962

The Bank of America presented the following certificates of achievement: Lucy Bybee in the Business Arts; Paul Drake in the Fine Arts, and (not pictured) Dave Bardsley in the Liberal Arts; Gene Valdes in the field of Science and Math.

The American Legion representatives present Father Cranham with an engraved plaque and certificates which were awarded to the highest scorer, boy and girl citizen in our school.

Awards presented at the 1960-61 assembly enabled some '61 graduates to receive the plaques and certificates explained above. The 1962 assembly will be pictured in the supplement to this book which will be published in August, 1962. It is hoped that a bigger and better showing will be present among the award winners for this one.

Magazine Drive

The Annual Magazine Drive was off to a big start with a rally held in the gym. Students were expected to sell subscriptions in order to raise money needed for the painting of the bleachers in the football field. The rally was interesting as well as the literature which was passed out. Picture 1 we see Mr. Senior who apparently plans to sell those magazines which will merit for him the greatest amount of points. He wants to win the yard of money seen in picture 5. Picture 2 caught some others unawares. Susie Thompson is interested, Jacqueline Nadvornick, surprised by the camera, and Eileen Kramer? Well? Mike McRaven passed out the literature that everyone was interested in. Sister Ann Marie and Miss Potter, as well as Father Moreno, Father Croal and Sister Rosaria, who received theirs from Roy Roberts, seem to enjoy the possibilities of the sales.

Just look at those prizes! Mike Mokler is most interested in that money! What it wouldn't help me with! thinks he.

Visitors to

Visitors to Pius X from Immaculate Heart College were Sister Mary Louise, IHM, Judy Grantham, '59, Danielle Vracin, '59, and Cheryl Starr '60 who gave the girls of the student body an interesting discussion of the merits and requirements of IHC.

Loyola University lent three undergraduates to speak to the boys on the merits and requirements for The Loyola Man.

Nursing and Liberal Arts students, Jolene Mullin '59, came with one of the sisters from Mount St. Mary's College for an explanation of the nursing courses offered by that college.

First Mass and Blessing

The Student Body had the privilege of having Father John Gomes, brother of Robert Gomes, '60, offer one of his first Masses here at the school for us. He gave his general blessing to the entire student body, then individually to the faculty and to those of the student body who were interested in receiving his First Blessing. We were honored with such a great privilege!

"A WILDE EVENING WITH SHAW"

Mayo L'Oiseaux and Richard Gray presented "Excerpts from a Wilde Evening With Shaw" to the student body and the faculty. The Drama Club hosted the two at tea after the performance.

The PFO meeting of March 12 gave the opportunity for the return of graduates to Pius X for purposes of entertainment. Sister Ann Bernard '59, visits with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erhart.

The Cal-Poly Road Show paid a visit to Pius X bringing with them their band, mixed chorus, Dixieland quintet and madrigal group.

Grads Prepare Early

Finally, the deal that makes graduation seem just around the corner is the taking of pictures—to be put in the yearbook—to be sent to relatives—to be exchanged with that of your closest friends—to be kept for posterity! Above, Mike, of Alfred and Fabris studios, sets the light just right to catch the gleam of Grace Vigil's hair. Teena Chang oversees that arrangement of the possible selections given to the Seniors when they decide to buy. Bob helps Kathy Zeisler tilt her head the best way to catch her charming smile. Jean signs in Sheila Chaves and Carol Dwankowski for portrait appointments with all the trimmings!

Congrats Graduates

GRACE VIGIL	KATHY ZEISLER
TEENA CHANG	SHEILA CHAVES
	CAROL DWANKOWSKI

These graduates are placed in this part of the book because they returned to the school after the Senior section of the book had gone to the printers.

PETRA GONZALO

Petra comes to us from Leon, Spain for the purpose of learning American ways and customs as well as the English Language. We wish her well.

This organization boasts the talents of the most effective bouncers in Pius X History!

P F A

Pius X Failure, Anonymous!

Typical adult educational program presented by the "cultural" organization of the group.

Official black-mailing committee.

Our annual formal banquet was a great success with the male attendance.

Our noble and capable President.

Our noble Secretary fixing the books—at midnight!

In Memoriam

*"And with the morn those angel faces, smile
Which I have loved long since and lost awhile."*

Cardinal Newman: Pallor of the Cloud

Anthony Stasko, '63

In Gratitude

The music fades,
The players bow,
The audience rises and departs—
Only memories
Of the symphony remain.
Yet as the musicians
File from the stage
In the moment
Of their triumph,
Let them pause
By the loyal, quiet group
Of behind-the-scene-sentinels,
And share their glory
In brief words of gratitude.

To the Supreme Artist,
Highest Teacher and Critic
Go first thanks.
We tender our gratitude
To off-stage and on-stage
Conductors: Principal and Vice-Principal
Paters Cranham and Delaney;
To the American Yearbook Company,
Mirro-Graphic Division,
Printers of the score;
To Smithcraft;
To Alfred and Fabris Studios
For portraits of Senior musicians.
We also thank
Faculty and students
For cheerfully relinquishing
Rehearsal time;
Mr. Meyer, for loan of Staff, typewriters, and radio
In emergency hours;
Mr. Wilson, for late-hour
Vigilance over lights and windows;
And Danny Joynt, for
"Volunteer" photography.
Last recognition
And deepest bow
To the staff of Dedicated organizers—
Who perhaps best know the Music of the school,
And our ever-present, ever-patient
Director—Sister Jeanette.

Dearest Jeff:
I hope that in the future
we can become better acquainted.
You have really got a personality
as great sense of humor.

Stay sweet Always.

May God bless you and keep you
Always.

Jeff - I think I've known your school since you were born. I'll do my best to help you
 in any way I can.
 Love,
 Mom

O.K.
 you!
